MAC DID NOT STOP IN DALY CITY

But Scores Line Curbs To See The General

Daly City as well as most of the Bay Area declared an unofficial holiday Wednesday to pour out their hearts and sound loud cheers for the homecoming hero, General Douglas MacArthur.

So eager were many local residents to see the General that scores of persons crowded Daly City curbs yesterday evening hoping to catch a glance of the General's party. However, a last minute change in program resulted in a direct trip from the International Airport to the Hotel St. Francis, down Bayshore.

Original plans had called for the General's car to come through Daly City. So eager were many residents to see the famed man they refused to believe plans had been changed.

"For almost an hour after the General had landed I was counting people along the curb," Police Officer Charles Munday said today. "I told them he wasn't coming this way, but they just wouldn't believe it."

Despite the General's bypass of Daly City, thousands of local residents were among the many thousands more who cheered and yelled for him Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning.

Old timers say this was possibly the greatest celebration ever held for one man in the history of San Francisco.

And for those who didn't wish to fight the crowds, TV carried a complete program of the General's visit.

Thus, the living legend returned to the United States. But some Daly City residents will never quite forgive him for bypassing this city.

Fourth Candidate Enters JHS Race

Entering what may the hottest school board election in many years this week was still another candidate for the Jefferson High School board.

He is Myron F. Heggum, 32, 142 Thiers street. This brings to four the number seeking the two vacant posts on the school board. Heggum, who was employed at the high school as a maintenance worker for three and a half years, is the father of a baby boy.

The Daly City man was the last to get under the wire for filing for the election. The final filing date was Wednesday evening.

Other candidates seeking election to the high school board are: incumbent Thomas Callan of Colma; Lyal Ingersoll of Daly City, and Guy G. Kitson of Edgemar.

Callan, who had also previously filed for the board of San Mateo Junior College, this week withdrew. He said this action was based on the assertion that he now has too many other civic duties.

"I feel with the coming school bond election here in Daly City that I should devote my time to putting it over rather than running for the position of trustee on the College board," Callan explained today.

Meanwhile, there were no last minute candidates in the Elementary School board election. Seeking the one vacant post on the board will be: incumbent Andrew Van Der Werff; Claude Hanrahan, Thomas S. Jenkins and Mrs. Ruth Macdonald Fisher.

TEACHERS TO GET SALARY INCREASE

Wage Boost Of From $75 to $100 A Year

Jefferson Elementary District School teachers were assured today of a salary increase of from $75 to $100 a year.

The tentative wage boost was agreed upon at a special meeting of the school board last Thursday, April 12.

Following a discussion with teachers, the board pointed out that the proposed increase was as high as the district could go under present revenue.

There was, however, a chance that some of the teachers might receive even a larger boost. A bill before the state legislature would up statewide salaries to $3,000 minimum for teachers. The minimum for the Jefferson Elementary School District is $2800.

Also, board members asserted that if the state apportioned more money to the district, or the sources of revenue increased, teachers' salaries would be boosted. more than $75 or $100.

Final agreement on the teachers' wages will be held in abeyance pending action by the state legislature.

Board Election

Van Der Werff Calls For Support

Andrew Van Der Werff, incumbent trustee for the Jefferson Elementary School District, and a candidate for re-election on Friday, May 18, requested support at the polls in a public statement today:

"My interest in our local schools have been proven to this community by my service on the Board for the past five and one half years. During that time I have seen a tremendous increase in pupil population and it has been my pleasure to have assisted in solving the problems caused by this unprecedented growth. Three new school buildings have been completed during my term of office, one additional building is now under construction and plans for five more projects are being readied for bids.

"During this time I have actively participated in two school bond elections both of which were overwhelmingly approved by the voters.

"Everyone familiar with the local schools knows of the wonderful progress made during the past several years. May I point with pardonable pride to the fact that this progress has paralleled my own membership on the Board.

Ways and Means

"Any candidates for the position of school trustee must be willing to spend long hours and much effort in studying ways and means to improve both the physical school plant and the educational program. This I have done, and as evidence my record of attendance at board meetings shows that I have been present almost one hundred percent.

"My support of the local school program, the superintendent and the administrative staff as well as our teachers are a matter of public record written in the minutes of the Board and in the achievements of our schools during the two terms I have served.

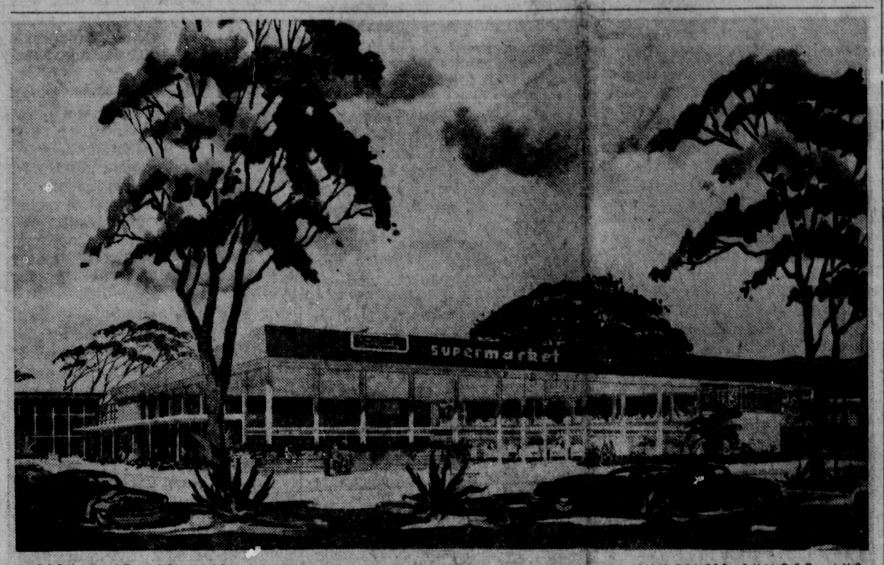
Long Service

"This service and the knowledge I have gained through my fifteen years of residence in the school district have qualified me as an experienced candidate.

"I have approached all educational problems from an unbiased and non-political viewpoint, attempting to weigh the facts and to determine policy on the sincere principle of what is best for our children.

"In the belief that experience, open-mindedness, interest in pupil welfare and a demonstrated willingness to work for better schools qualify me as a candidate for re-election, I have again consented to place my name before the voters."

NEW STORES OPEN



SUPERMARKET FOR WESTLAKE — WENDY DOELGER BUILDER, INC.

Westlake's New Super Market Opens Tuesday... Grand Opening Slated Later

Westlake's new super market—first complete shopping center for this area—will open for business Tuesday, April 24, Vincent J. Nevolo, manager, announced today.

This will be preparatory to the grand opening, date of which is to be announced later.

The spacious, modern, completely air-conditioned store spreads over 25,000 square feet. Its exterior is a beautiful picture of glass and brick, while the interior features the latest in complete lighting and shopping conveniences.

Modern Design

In keeping with advanced design, the super market will offer free parking space for approximately 2700 cars adjacent to the building.

Designed by Jack Finnegan and Mogens Mogensen, A.L.A., the store offers Westlake and Daly City residents shopping opportunities unprecendented in this area.

Inside its expansive steel, brick and glass shell, the building houses six separate departments. Here the shopper will have a complete selection of fish, meat, poultry, groceries, vegetables, fruits, wines and liquors as well as a variety of other supplies.

Store Hours

The store will remain open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. seven days a week and Sunday.

Key officials include Manager Nevolo and department heads: Joseph Pierotti, fish and poultry; Frank Del Grande, produce; Leo Massaglea and Bud Fewer, meats; Louis Chiappari, liquor.

"We pride ourselves on the fact that this is a one-stop market," Nevolo noted. "Everything the buyer needs, from cabbage to caviar, will be found on our shelves."

The super market is the first unit of a $15 million Westlake Town and Country Center. There will be aproximately 100 units including a medical and office building; two department stores; bank; post ofifce; and shops of all kinds.

Gambles Western Auto Supply Co. Store Has Preliminary Opening

Gambles Western Auto Supply Company—the first branch store of this organization in the Daly City area—throws open its doors for a "shake down" opening today, April 19.

The streamlined, modern store, located at the southern corner of the Broadmoor Shopping Center on Junipero Serra Boulevard. will hold its grand opening April 26. However, in order to ready everything for that bid day, the store will be opened today.

Open seven days a week, including Sunday, the store hours will be from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Veteran Mgr.

Ralph Ahlstrom, a veteran with the Gambles Western Auto Supply Company, will manage the new store.

Covering 9,000 square feet of floor space, the two story building has within its walls everything the average householder needs. The store has a full line of furniture and floor coverings, including the most modern to the period type.

Of special interest to the men of the house is the complete auto parts and supply department. Under the management of Richard Del Fran, this section offers everything from major automobile parts to seat covers.

In the housewear department, the woman of the family will find an assortment of items from sink stops to the finest automatic washing machines made. This department is under the capable management of Helen Zirkel.

"'Complete' is the only word to describe the various departments of our store," Ahlstrom said today.

Sportsman

The sportsman also will be at home in the new store. Here he may purchase a length of line or a high powered rifle. There is a complete line of camping equipment as well.

And just to touch on a few of the other many items, the store features the most modern garden supplies, the finest paints, wheel goods from bikes to coasters gifts of every variety, and almost anything you can name or need.

Departments heads not before mentioned include: Tom Silver, furniture; Lawrence Clark, sporting goods; Red Lally, installation and service; Ann Reed, office. Louie Frewart is the assistant manager.

Fine Structure

As for the building itself, it is so arranged that the shopper may see every item he wishes. No need to have a clerk dig up the items from hidden shelves.

Also, this is the first of the Western Auto Stores to employ a completely new color idea, both inside and out. It is worth a visit to check the color scheme and the modern fixtures.

But more next week. Watch THE RECORD, and SHOPPING NEWS for the grand opening.

ECA Official Speaks

SHOWDOWN WITH REDS SEEN SOON

The time for the showdown with the communists in France will come next year at the national election says Foster J. Pratt of the Economic Cooperation Administration in Paris, during a visit to Colma this week.

While visiting his daughter in San Bruno, Pratt, who is home on leave, presented movies on European nations at the New Colma School Tuesday.

"The Communists are the strongest single party in the National Assembly in France," Pratt continued. "This is because there are about a dozen national parties in France."

If the Communists get the support of one of these parties they can control the voting in the assembly.

However, Pratt beleives that the Communists' power is on the decline in France, as in Italy. The Communist papers in France are having financial difficulties because of the loss of paid subscribers, he said.

Three of Italy's Red leaders have returned to Moscow because of recent defeats in Italy.

Major Field

Pratt is associated with the Labor Division of the E.C.A. in Paris. He believes this is the most important field in the Marshall Plan because it is in direct conflict with the Communists.

"It is the duty of the Labor Division to give information to battle the Communists," he said.

During his two years of duty in France, Pratt has noticed a great change in the people there. "They are better dressed, and there is less unemployment. When I first arrived, people were dressed in rags, but now they are well dressed. All in all France has recovered a great deal from the war-torn nation it was a few years ago."

Fine Stores

"Stores are well supplied and are open full time because of Marshall Plan aid. For awhile stores were closed down two days a week because of an electricity

BOND ISSUE MEET CALLED

Plans For New School Discussed Friday

An organization meeting for the High School bond issue election will be held in the school library at 8 o'clock Friday evening, April 20.

All interested citizens are invited to attend. Information regarding the school's needs and plans will be given and a discussion will be held on the best means of informing the public.

Special invitations have been sent to board members of the elementary schools, Parent Teacher Association presidents, the Daly City Council, those who were active in the Jefferson Elementary School bond campaign, and others. It is emphasized, however, that everyone is welcome.

"Pete" Markovich, chairman of the high schol board, will head the bond campaign. "We want a campaign to inform the people," says Markovich. "If the people known the facts we know they will support the bond issue."

Achievement Awards

Jeff High Honor Students Named

The names of outstanding seniors of Jefferson Union High School who have been selected for Bank of America Achievement Awards were announced today by Stanford Hannah, Principal.

Those chosen to receive Achievement Cups for excellence in general fields of study are:

Patricia Austring, Fine Arts; Robert Giorni, Liberal Arts; Kathleen Johnston, Vocational Arts.

Students who are to receive certificates for superiority in specific fields of study are:

Alice Hammond, Mathematics; Donald Otvos, Laboratory Science; Patricia Austring, Music; Ann Ostrem, English; Robert Giorni, Social Science; Craig Coffee, Foreign Languages; Kathleen Johnston, Business; Dolores Koff, Home Economics; James Hatchel, Trades and Industrial.

Cup winners may be called upon to represent their school in a zone event to be held May 4 in Redwood City, at which time they will be judged by a committee of educators and civic leaders. Should a representative of Jefferson Union High School be selected to represent the zone, he will become eligible to receive a cash award. The Bank of America is offering $16,000 in awards to students of Northern California Schools.

The cash prizes, ranging from $50 to $1,000, will be awarded in two final judgings to be held May 23 in San Francisco for the nine Bay Area counties, and May 18 in Sacramento for the 39 counties north of and including Kern.

This is the first year that the program has been conducted on a statewide basis. Close to 100 per cent of Northern California's 300 senior high schools, parochial schools and private schools are participating.

"Awards are made to senior students on the basis of their achievements in school and promise of future success and service ot society," stated Llewellyn Reese, student government advisor at the high school. "Considered by the judges in making awards," continued Reese, "are the student's scholarship record, character, citizenship and leadership."

Dr. Cole Continues In Tradition Of Dr. Doyle

Dr. George C. Cole, who has known the late Dr. and Mrs. John L. Doyle for a number of years, recently arrived in Daly City from the state of Washington.

He has taken over the practice of the late Dr. Doyle and is carrying on in the tradition of his friend at the same location, 6187 Mission Street.

Residents Invited To Inspect Schools And Pupils' Work

Elementary Schools Open First Four Days Of Week... High School On Friday

With a series of programs, exhibits and open house school visits, the Jefferson School district will celebrate the 32nd annual observance of Public Schools' Week April 23 to 27.

The week will be observed at Jefferson High School the evening of Friday, April 27.

Following are the dates that schools of the elementary district will be holding open house:

Monday, April 23. Woodrow Wilson 7:00-9:00 p.m.

Tuesday, April 24. Crocker, Jefferson 7:00-9:00 p.m.

Wednesday, April 25. Colma, Pershing, and Thornton 7:00-9:00 p.m.

Thursday, April 26. Garden Village 7:00-9:00 p.m.

Exhibits of pupil work will be on display in each school. Special displays are arranged at the Thornton School Shop and Home Economics Rooms and will be open for exhibit on Wednesday, April 25.

As the "Open House" is primarily for the purpose of acquainting the adult public with the program of the public schools, children unless accompanied by parents are requested not to attend.

High School

Each department of Jefferson High school will have an exhibit and/or demonstrations of the work being done Friday evening, April 27. These will all be assembled in the auditorium and the teachers will be on hand to talk to parents and other interested visitors.

The school band will play a short concert at 8:15 and the boys' physical education department will put on a demonstration of tumbling.

Articles of furniture made in the wood shop, clothing from the home making department, art and craft projects, demonstrations by science students; in fact something from every department will be of interest to those who come to the school.

Parents and others are urged to make themselves known to the teachers and to discuss the school work with them.

The plan being followed this year is similar to that used a year ago. There were so many favorable comments that it was decided to repeat the plan.

The Jefferson High School PTA will serve coffee and cake in the cafeteria at a nominal price.

Everyone is welcome.

Daly City Marine Given Decoration

WITH THE FIRST MARINE DIVISION IN KOREA—Commissioned Warrant Officer Joseph E. Intaschi, son of Mr. Ernest Intashchi, 303 Miriam Street, and husband of Mrs. Marie Dorothy Intashchi, 476 Santa Barbara Ave., has been awarded the Commendation Ribbon with Combat "V" for excellent service in the line of his profession while serving with a Marine amphibian tractor company during operation in Korea.

The citation accompanying the award reads in part: "Regardless of danger or personal fatigue and often under enemy fire, he worked long tedious hours to seek out disabled tractors, direct and supervise their repair and place them back into action. Moving among the front line units and supporting elements, he traveled day and night to follow the tractors, which were engaged in supplying assault units and evacuating casualties, to keep them in operating condition. His actions set an example to all who worked with him and contributed materially to the success of his company's mission. Commissioned Warrant Officer Intaschi's conduct throughout was in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service."

Murdered Teacher Had $30,000 Estate

An estate in excess of $30,000 was left by Miss Daisy Gowland, 52-year-old music teacher murdered here March 28, according to a financial status revealed by Fred M. Wycoff, assistant district attorney, Friday.

About $22,000 of Miss Gowland's holdings were in cash or securities easily convertible to cash, Wycoff declared. He said that cash totalled $5000, postal savings $7700 and U. S. bonds $9150.

The remainder was principally in real estate.

Miss Gowland's financial report followed the dispatch of the body of her accused killer, Herman Stieve, to Barboo, Wisconsin, for burial.

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOLS

COLMA SCHOOL

Yes, we are very, very young. In fact, we're really just about two weeks old, but nevertheless, we, Colma School Student Body, proudly present a spelling "champ," in the personality of Linda Amundsen, 8th grade, Room 1 student.

On Friday, April 6th, Linda competed with the school spelling "champs" from other schools of the Jefferson School District, and won first place, which makes her eligible to compete for the county finals to be held in San Bruno, April 13th. Linda was chosen prior to the district transfer from Crocker, where she competed against Joseph Baird, to be the representative for Colma School.

The Colma School Student Body is very proud, and will be keeping their fingers crossed on Friday, April 13th, for Linda to bring back to the District the county honor of spelling "champ."

The unimproved playground at Colma School has initiated varied activities for students. Folk dancing, ball room dancing, and discussion periods, have been an incentive to students to once more participate in an enriched curriculum, which due to previous overcrowded conditions could not be promoted.

Physical education activities, in the way of sports and games, have also been organized, and those girls participating in field games, are wearing gym outfits, in the form of grays. This provides for more freedom on the unimproved playfield, and meets with the conservative idea of keeping clothes and shoes clean. Students and teachers are enthusiastic over the developments and ideas which the ingenuity of those interested in planning have developed.

Gift

Crocker PTA presented to the Student Body of Colma School a lovely, portable electric phonograph at thier installation meeting and teacher reception on Tuesday evening, April 10th. The gift was accepted by student body president, Lenita Johnson. Colma Student Body was enthused over the gift, since the students are enjoying ballroom dancing during the lunch hour.

The Colma faculty were likewise agreeably surprised and thrilled to be presented with a lovely electric percolator, also from the Crocker PTA. Both students and teachers felt "Santa" had made a special spring visit to their school and were so grateful and appreciative of the thoughtfulness of the association.

Seventh Grade

The seventh grade pupils in Mr. Mitchell's room are getting their room ready for Public Schools Week. They are learning to use rulers and compasses in making geometric designs. Then they paint the designs with water colors. After the designs are painted they pin them up and pick out the best ones. The pupils who made the best designs tell the class how they did it.

The students of the seventh grade in Room 6 are finding the areas of rectangles, triangles, and other plane figures. In order to find the areas, the students must learn different formulas. The seventh graders enjoyed the film, "Desert Nomads." This film introduced the students to their next social studies unit—Africa.

CROCKER SCHOOL

Second Gift

Crocker student body, being represented by Ronald Davis, accepted the lovely electric phonograph presented to the student body of the school by the Crocker PTA on Tuesday evening, April 10th, when the association held its installation and teacher reception. Since all classes enjoy folk dancing the phonograph is a gross asset to the students.

Room 4

The Sixth Grade in Room 4 has begun its unit on Alaska—Our Last Frontier. They have learned how Alaska was purchased for what was considered an outrageous price in 1867 and has since paid for itself many times. They have learned of its mineral wealth, its agricultural possibilities and its strategic importance in the event of war. They have also learned that weather stations in Alaska are extremely important for airplanes and shipping as well as for general weather information.

Room 6

The sixth grade in room 6 has organized the class into two teams for physical education. John Smith and Janet Mosley have been appointed captains.

Room 5

The students are writing to fourth grade classes in various small cities in the United States telling about how they look, their school, hobbies, and their city.

Nancy Golden, Barbara Wester, Sandra Fortier, and Nancy Cameron were selected to sing in the Glee Club under the direction of Mrs. Vint.

Room 3

The Fifth Grade in Room 3 has been studying about the parts of plants and the purpose of each part. The children have made some very fine drawings to illustrate the different parts of plants.

We have also finished the second in our series of maps on California. We hope to have five maps in the set.

Card Of Thanks

I wish to expres my sincere thnks to my many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings, spiritual bouquets and words of sympathy extended to me in my recent bereavement in the loss of my wife Marie M. Murchison.

shortage. However, E. C. A. has overcome this by financing power plants."

The Marshall Plan is aiding the recovery of European nations by overcoming the housing and refugee problems, and sending them supplies, Pratt said.

Marshall's five year plan in Europe is up next year. "It is strictly up to Congress whether it will continue. Congress might join the Marshall Plan with the Defense Program," he said.

In discussing France's reaction to the threat of Russia over-running Europe, Pratt said, "You hear more about the European situation in the United States than you do there."

"France feels better off with the Atlantic pact," he said. "They know the United States is behind them."

Tie Up

He believes all the West Europe nations should tie up together, as proposed in the Schuman Plan.

Pratt returned to America from France the first of March. He has been spending his leave with his family in Seattle. His home town is Bremerton where he worked at the navy yards for years.

He will leave soon for Washington, and then return to duty in Paris in May.

Local Bus Driver Mui-Man Of Month

Edgar Newlon, 253 Victoria Street, was named recently as "Muni Man of the Month" for March.

A driver on the No. 26 Daly City express, Mr. Newlon is a paragon among bus operators, according to the passengers who have written in praise of him. "Unfailingly courteous." "Observes all traffic regulations." "The most wonderful driver we have ever seen." "When he sees you running, he waits for you." "No jerking or jarring." These are some of the expressions used in the letters concerning him.

Mr. Newlon received his $50 Thursday morning in a ceremony in the office of Utilities Manager J. H. Turner. Also taking part in the presentation wereWheelock H. Bingham, President, and Thomas Gray, Manager, of the Down Town Association; Philip Johnson, President of the San Francisco chapter of the National Safety Council; and E. B. Sorensen of Fielder, Sorensen & Davis, the transit advertising firm which is donating the cash awards.

"Men like Mr. Newlon are a wonderful asset to our transportation system and to the city of San Francisco as a whole," declared Mr. Bingham. "We of the Down Town Association are well aware of what an important part the public transit system plays in our business, and we are anxious to encourage courtesy and efficiency on the part of the operators."

The Newlons have two sons, Clyde, 15, who is a student at Lincoln High School, and Brian, 7, who goes to Sheridan grammar school. The 41-year old bus driver also serves as scout master for the Boy Scouts of Troop 50. Mr. Newlon has been employed by the Railway for six years.

Letter to Editor

Judge Thomas Bocci Explains His Views On Reorganization Of County Courts

South San Francisco, Calif.
April 15, 1951

THE RECORD
3317 San Jose Avenue
Daly City, California

Gentlemen:

As Justice of the Peace of First Township I have taken an interest in the recent recommendation of the Judicial Council for a two district County in the reorganization of Inferior Courts.

In my opinion this plan ignors the needs of the First Township and is wholly inadequate to meet the requirements of the First Township let alone the whole of San Mateo County. I have set forth my views on this subject in a letter to the County Bar Association a copy of which is enclosed herewith. (See Letter Below.) In that letter you will note not only my views on the subject but also my findings which justify the need for at least one Municipal Court in the First Township and the rejection of the two district plan which would concentrate the Municipal Courts in the City of San Mateo and the City of Redwood City.

I have noted from a reading of a daily newspaper that Mr. Stallings, County Manager, has favored the recommendation for the two district county plan principally because there would be a saving of at least $20,000.00. If it is the poilcy of our County to save money at the expense of a proper judicial system wherein the needs of the people of this county and the needs of the First Township are ignored, in my opinion it is as much a perversion of the ends of Justice as it would be to have no Courts at all.

Satisfied

I feel satisfied that when the re-organization is completed these new courts will return to the County Treasury an increased revenue which it does not presently receive, from the five Justice Courts. I base this reasoning on the fact that under the amendment, a certain percentage of all traffic fines that now become a part of the city revenues will go into the county coffers and which will more than offest any additional expense created by five full time Municipal Courts. On the subject of the expense of maintenance of the new courts simple reasoning will show that it will certainly be less expensive to operate five new courts than the 13 courts now prevailing in the county.

It is my humble belief that this County requires three districts with one Court located in the First Township, two courts located in the City of San Mateo for a district comprising township five and two, and two courts in the City of Redwood City comprising townships four and three.

I have submitted these views to you in hopes that you might publish them since it is to the best interest of this country and its residents that they be completely informed on all details of this subject.

Very truly yours,
Thomas L. Bocci, Jr.
Justice of the Peace.

Letter To Mr. Dell'Ergo:

South San Francisco, Calif.
April 16th, 1951

County Bar Association
County of San Mateo
Redwood City, California

Att: Robert Dell'Ergo
Chairman of the Committee for the Re-Organization of Inferior Courts

Dear Mr. Dell'Ergo:

The recent recommendation of the Justice's Court for a two district County, in the re-organization of the Inferior Courts, fails in the opinion of this writer to take into consideration both the increase in Court work and the increased population in the First Township.

The population of the First Township has increased from 68,000 in the last census in 1950 to more than 80,000 at the present time and with a definite potential increase to over 100,000 by January 1, 1953. It is my humble opinion as Civil Judge of the First Township that one Municipal Court should be allocated to this district in its present formation to permit the re-organization to take effect on the basis of the recommendation of the Judicial Council without a Court centered in the First Township would be a gross injustice to the needs of this district and a rebuke to more than 80,000 people presently residing here who are entitled to proper judicial representation. This is the only township in the State of California, let alone the County of San Mateo, which contains three major cities each approximating 20,000 people or more in population.

Five Courts

The Township presently contains five City Courts and one Justice Court, two of these Courts sit twice a week and the remaining four Courts sit one day per week. The present work of these Courts would aggregate much more than could be handled by one full time Judge let alone dispose of such aditional Civil matters as may be created by the increased judisdiction of the new Court. Under the recommendation of the Judicial Council, two Judges would be provided for the district commencing at South San Mateo to the San Francisco County City line, in all probability having its Court sessions in the City of San Mateo. Such a recommendation obviously ignores the increased growth of population and the work of many Courts in that district as well as ignoring the deeds of the First Township which should have the Municipal Court sitting in the City of South San Francisco.

At the last Federal census of 1950 the First Township ranked second in population of the County since the population has increased to 80,000 making it the foremost township in the County. This is revealed by the following facts:

a. 964 family units have been constructed in South San Francisco since the last census.

b 640 Family dwellings and 70 apartments with 499 units have since been completed in Daly City.

These are the figures revealed by the respective Building Inspectors office.

I have not examined the records of San Bruno or any of the other districts, but it must be assumed that there has been an increase comparable to that of Daly City and South San Francisco. This does not take into consideration the expansion of Sharp Park, Bayshore City, Broadmoor, Colma, Millbrae and various other sections of the unincorporated areas.

Big Increase

With the completion of 2100 family units in Daly City and South San Francisco alone it is obviously an increase of more than 6,000 population by just those two cities alone. These facts do not take into consideration the present building programs in this township. Stoneson Bros., of San Francisco are completing Winston Manor, a sub-division in South San Francisco, which will mean an additional 600 homes by the end of the year. Sterling Building Co., is in the process of completing 350 units in Buri Buri also in South San Francisco. Standard Building has purchased acreage in South San Francisco adjoining Holy Cross Cemetery and contemplated construction of 1500 homes within the next two years. In Daly City Henry Doelger is half way along his program of 2000 homes.

I have submitted this information in hope that your committee might guide itself in opposing the two district plan and continuing the recommendations of a three district plan whereby the First Township will have one Municipal Court located in South San Francisco. We must keep in mind that by January 1, 1953, on the basis of the above facts, the population of the First Township will have increased to more than 1000,000, certainly large enough to warrant at least one Court, if not more. It is only right that these three major cities of the First Township should have one Municipal Court presiding in the immediate area. The peace officers of the five municipalities located in this township have expressed opposition to the recommendation of the Judicial Council for a two district plan. Unquestionably the people of the district would voice a like objection if their views were to be solicited.

I have personally undertaken the task of looking into this matter not only because of my personal interest in it but primarily to protect the interests of my many friends and constituents of the First Township who deserve better judicial representation than will be provided by the two district plan.

Very truly yours,
Thomas L. Bocci, Jr.
Justice of the Peace.

From A Corner

By Bill Katz

Hail, the conquering hero.

That's about the only way you can sum up the return of General Douglas MacArthur to America. Divorced of all the political and military overtones, the General's triumphant march on San Francisco is the supreme example of Americans' love of the hero.

Some 500,000 people turned out to welcome "Mac." A good many of those were Pacific veterans who had cursed the General roundly after the war; others were at odds with his foreign policy; some thought him a dictator . . . but all were glad to see him home. And their fervor was just as strong as the thousands more who were in complete sympathy with the General.

Ideal Hero

Now it is not often that a man who differs in every way with another man will stand for hours on a curb stone and cheer himself hoarse for whom in normal times would be an enemy. In fact, this state of things is peculiar only to America. But then Americans have a great faculty for hero worship.

And Douglas MacArthur is the ideal hero. No one has ever questioned his moral integrity, nor his ability in the field of the military. He is intelligent, handsome, an unsurpassed public speaker, a family man with a great devotion for his son and wife, a leader, and every inch a MAN. No one can help admiring the General, if only for his marvelous ability for staging.

Couple this admiration with every man's understanding of what it means to return home, of what it means to be 14 years away from the soil of America; and you have some idea why San Francisco went mad over Mac's return.

The Answer

It is simply this . . . in the General every man, woman and child could visualize himself; of what it means to return home, and how glorious it is to receive the adoration of the crowd. For a moment, I believe, we were all one with MacArthur. We were receiving the applause; we were speaking to the crowds; and we were "glad to be home."

There is a parallel to the MacArthur return in one of the most ancient and beloved tales of all time . . . Homer's Odyssey. MacArthur might well be the 20th Century Odysseus, who after a long wandering and series of travels returns to his home. It is true Homer didn't have Harry Truman anywhere in the story, but there were the gods who didn't see eye to eye with Odysseus in many matters.

Strange Resemblance

The apparent resemblance of the legendary Greek figure and MacArthur might be the subject of a long article; but our purpose in introducing this parallel is only to point out that hero worship is an ancient, and for the most part, beneficiary asset to civilization.

With Americans, as with the Greeks, it takes a genuine man to be a hero; not a Hitler or Mussolini. And in adoring the man of the hour, we believe it brings out the best in most of us. The hero is the ideal, and in saluting the ideal we are raising ourselves just a little above the common material things of living.

Of course there is another side to this, that hero worship may kill reasoning. However, in the case of General MacArthur we are sure he will not let the emotion of the crowd sway him in any way which will hurt the country.

Regardless of whether you believe in what MacArthur stands for, either in the foxhole or around the diplomats' table, there is no question that he well deserves the shout: "Hail, the conquering hero."

WATCH THE OIL LEVEL

Many expensive repair jobs on cars are a result of driving with insufficient oil in the crankcase, says the California State Automobile Association. In addition to lubricating the moving parts, the oil also helps to keep the motor cool.

ALL HAIL SCHOOL WEEK

Schools—institutions all youngsters despise and oldsters look back upon with fond memories, have their week April 23-27.

Much has been said about schools as the first line of defense for democracy. More can be said, for it is true that the groundwork for any government system is only as strong as its schools.

However, the less serious aspects of the week might also be considered. Throughout the five days students in the various schools will be on their best behaviour. Parents will meet the teachers, and it will be a toss-up as to who will be more uncomfortable.

There will be programs during which the children will demonstrate what they have learned in school over the past months. To an outsider the display of talent will be a bore, but to a parent or teacher who has taken an active interest in the participants their work will be of the angels. .....

The kids will be a little dismayed at all the extra attention, and the majority of them will wish that "ma" or "pa" hadn't invaded the privacy of the school room. After all, school is a place for youngsters, not parents. And pity the poor child whose mother, in a loud voice, has some gushy words of admiration for her "little baby" who is now pushing 12 years.

But despite all the obvious flaws in letting the oldsters invade the sacred realm of the youngsters, School Week has its place. It will bring to the attention of parents that the majority of school facilities are just bordering on the line of being inadequate. Parents will see the great odds teachers must work against in trying to educate their children in rooms without the proper amount of space.

And it is mighty good that School Week comes just before the $1,300,000 proposed school bond issue to build a new high school. One look at the schools will convince most residents that the bond issue must pass...it had better pass, or they will be teaching the kids out on the curb stones.

NICK SCHULA NEEDS YOUR HELP TODAY

"Nick" Schula, the all together too big hearted owner of the Philosophy Store, needs your help today.

Nick is fighting for his life in the Community Hospital.

He is desperately in need of a private nurse. But nurses must be paid, and Nick no longer has the funds to afford such service.

What happened to his money? Why shouldn't the owner of a store be prosperous?

The answers to those questions are known by hundreds of local residents who literally lived off Nick and the Philosophy Store during the depression. No man went hungry who came to Nick. He gave away thousands of dollars worth of groceries during those lean years; and he asked nothing in return.

Even today he asks nothing.

But The Record feels he is due a little interest not only on the food he gave away, but also on the friendships that he earned.

More could be said; but let the conscience of the man, the woman, the child to whom he extended a helping hand be the voice.

All those who feel Nick deserves a little aid are asked to leave contributions at the Philosophy Store, 31 Hillcrest Drive.

Letter to Editor

A QUESTION AND AN ANSWER

Dear Editor:

In your publication of April 5, 1951, you carried an editorial regarding the suggestion of caps and gowns for grammar school graduates and the reaction and interest of certain parents.

Your question of what it takes to make people interested in public affairs is one that requires some analyzing. First, you neglected to state what type of interest they might have been taking. In this case it might be one of betterment in the costuming of masses for public ceremonies—it might be of economic interest to a large number of people—or it might be of any number of arguments pro and con pertaining to the mental, moral and academic progress of the child. I think it could be said that a relatively small number of the people present at the last regular board meeting attended with those questions in mind.

Another facet to your rhetorical question might be this. Do people take an interest in order to vent a personal grievance or to air a personal grudge? It would have been of interest to a newspaper reporter to hear the personal digs and non-related remarks that were flung at the board members, some directed through the board member to another personality regarded as opposition to their interests—all these intermixed with remarks completely irrelevant to the discussion before the board. On this basis, public interest is disheartening to the public official, and completely destructive as regards the morale of truly public spirited individuals to say nothing of the burden it might cast upon their children—whom I doubt would be proud of the type of interest taken supposedly on their behalf.

The editor's question might be analyzed ad infinitum. But to end a brief study of it one other slant might be given some consideration. The old time worn method of working two ends against the middle is ever familiar to those who feel insecure and unable to carry on their own duties in an ethical manner.

There are many reasons to believe that incendiary thoughts were scattered about in some groups in order to precipitate a massacre of some critical school board members.

Rough Weather

"THE FAMILY that prays together stays together" is a saying as beautiful as it is true.

I have another saying to match it: "The family that plans together stands together."

If you and your husband and children don't plan together yours isn't a real home and it isn't a real marriage.

These are days of planning; revolutionary planning. We all have to get new viewpoints in these days. Never in the entire history of the world have peace-loving countries faced such catastrophic possibilities. There isn't one of us whose life isn't going to be touched by the onrush of events in the next few years, and the survivors—and there'll be millions of quite prosperous and secure survivors—are the ones who look ahead today.

Marcia Connelly is a forward looker. She writes me a most heartening letter from which these are excerpts:

"My husband, Frank, began to be tired, overworked and depressed about three years ago. He's always been a hard worker, but since the war he's had all sorts of troubles; strikes in our very small business, difficulties in getting inventory, high prices, high wages. He became very silent, anxious about me and the boys, but never ugly or interfering.

Lost Her Job

"I'd been a dressmaker when I married, and I tried to get in with a big shop, but my styles weren't today's and I lost that job. Then I went into a hotel as noon waitress, but noon wasn't their big hour, and they wanted me at night, which I couldn't do. Both these efforts distressed Frank, and he was glad when both failed.

"I tried to make him tell me where we stood financially, but he quietly refused; my housekeeping money did less and less, and he gave me less and less. But his shamed, sorrowful look when I served inexpensive meats or no meats at all went to my heart. One night the boys and I had bowls of oatmeal with raisins and a shortcake which we love, and I put one chop on Frank's plate, with a baked potato.

". . . began to be tired . . ."

"He cut the chop and the potato in two and divided them between the boys, got up and went out, and I learned afterward that he had no dinner at all, but just walked the streets that night.

"Well, then I got mad. I told him that I could manage well, feed the family well, get through whatever was ahead, yes, and enjoy it, too, but that I wasn't going to go on in this unbalanced way. I wanted us all to be in on it, and agree, and face it together.

No Steaks

"I told him that if he'd eat his dinner every night before he looked at it despairingly, he'd always be well filled. But that if thick hot soup and a tomato salad and apple dumplings didn't look good to him just because there wasn't a three-inch steak dripping in among them, he'd have to get another cook.

"I asked him to eat what he liked at noon downtown, but to let me see what I could do with meatless suppers for one whole month. Well, we've had shellfish salads and sometimes a chicken salad for supper since, but meat has never been the main dish on our table for three years. We sleep better, our bills are negligible, and we eat better, too.

"Then we moved. We moved from the city to an abandoned outlying shabby old place that we bought for $11,000. It had electric light, but antedated plumbing and it hadn't been painted for about 40 years. Labor was high, but Frank's a 'laborer,' and he worked right along with the men. The house is divided into five small apartments now, and if I had 10 I could rent them all tonight. We have a bank balance; the boys flourish in country air; and best of all, Frank is a younger and more confident man than he was even when I married him. He has moved his business to some little sheds in our back yard. The boys help week ends."

That is Marcia's letter, and what Marcia did other women can do. So don't be satisfied with silence, evasions, even irritable snubs from the man of the house, win him somehow to a mood when all his anxieties are brought out into the open; and bring out your own assortment. Perhaps something that you have been doing—Shirley's dancing lessons, Bill's school marks—have been fretting him out of all proportion. You may be sure that his worry is all for you and the children, as yours is for him.

New Highway Is Proposed From Here To Los Gatos

APRIL 19. (CNS) — Another four-lane highway for Santa Clara county — Highway 9 from the Bayshore Highway to the Saratogas-Los Gatos road, is being planned by the State Division of Highways.

Senator John F. Thompson, Santa Clara county, made this announcement today fololwing receipt of a letter from C. H. Purcell, State Director of Public Works, in reply to his request for a survey looking toward widening of Highway 9 to 40 feet.

"Nothing short of a modern, four-lane highway will be adequate," Pucell's letter said, "in view of the increase in traffic and the use of this route."

Modernization of the road, according to Purcell's letter, will cost approximately $4,768,000.

"The total deficiencies in Santa Clara county," Purcell said, "approximate $70,000,000. Plans are being laid to start on these deficiencies as soon as possible, and the plans will include the route mentioned."

The letter, Thompson said, does not specify when work can start on the proposed route from Bayshore to Saratoga-Los Gatos juncture with highway 101. No funds are in the present budget, and he interprets the letter as meaning the department is considering the road in line with its long range planning for the county.

ATOMIC BOMB LIFE SAVERS

What about lingering radioactivity?

Lingering radioactivity differs from explosive activity in exactly the manner its name implies.

Explosive radioactivity is dissipated within seconds of the blast while the lingering type may remain from a few minutes to weeks or months or even years.

Lingering radioactivity becomes an attending danger when A-bombs are exploded on the ground, underground or in water, but is not present with air bursts, unless rain falls soon afterward.

It consists of countless billions of fragments, or pieces, of atoms split up in the explosion. It is totally invisible, similar to ordinary, everyday dust. When present in any real quantity these particles scatter about in patches and contaminate, or pollute, everything they fall on, including people.

Chief means of protection from lingering radioactivity:

1. Stay in your shelter or home until advised to leave. You may be required to remain indoors for three to four hours, or longer.
2. If caught in the open (if it's any explosion except an air burst) get indoors right away.
3. Any rain or mist after an atomic explosion is considered dangerous. If possible, keep from getting wet.
4. After an attack, scrub exposed parts of your body.

OLPH Mothers' Club Plans Gala Event At School Auditorium Next Saturday

On Friday, April 13, The Mothers' Club of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church held its regular monthly meeting.

After the usual order of business, chairmen for the "April in Parish luncheon made their reports. The "April in Paris" luncheon will take place in the school auditorium, 80 Wellington Avenue, on Saturday afternoon at 1:00 p.m. April 28.

Mrs. Richard Ennis, who is co-chairman of the affair and in charge of the entertainment told the Club that she has arranged for most delightful French entertainment. While at luncheon, the guests will be treated to serenades by a strolling accordion player, followed by native French-Hindu dances. There will be a quartette featured. These singers are well known in this region as the "Sweet Adoline" quartette.

After several additional acts, Miss Barbara C. Farr, who is the Women Sales Representative for the T.W.A. Airlines will address the group and will present a twenty-seven minute color film, "A Flight into Romance." This beautiful film will take one in fancy to thevacation spots through out Europe, ending with some georgeous shots of Rome and the Vatican gardens.

Mrs. Anthony Ricci, who is in charge of tickets and reservations reported that many tables are being reserved for this event. Resa most delicious French luncheon. ervations may be made by telephoning Mrs. Ricci at JUniper 7-5735. Mrs. Hans Schroder is in charge of the door prize committe.

Table souvenirs are being made by the decorating committee, according to Mrs. Joseph Balesteri, chairman and each guest will take home a little momento of the day.

Mrs. Leon Fellman, who is in charge of the luncheon, reported all her plans in order and promised

Jeff High PTA Installs New Officers

Mrs. G. J. Sirex, 17th district PTA President, installed 10 Jefferson High PTA officers for 1952, at Jefferson High School, April 12.

Names of officers are as follows: Mrs. Byron Jensen, president; Mrs. Ilda Blackburn, vice president; Mr. Stanford Hannah, honorary president; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Freda Cady; Financial Secretary, Mrs. Emma D'Isep; Treasurer, Mrs. Florence Hopman; Parliamentarian, Mrs. Grace Hill; Historian Mrs. Freida Pistohl; Auditor, Mrs. Marjorie Reandeau.

Mrs. Grace Hill presented Mrs. Jensen with a silver Onyx ring, a thank you gift from the executive board. Mrs. Jensen expressed her gratitude for the help and cooperation of the executive board in the past.

Miss Jones and home economics class served tea, delicious sandwiches and cookies. Mr. Stevens and band played fine music, while a large number of PTA members and young ladies of the senior classes enjoyed the tea.

The meeting was adjourned with the announcement of a fashion show May 10. A greater attendane is expected for 1952 due to a fuller program.

School Board Candidate Asks Public To Support Public Schools' Week

The Editor,
The Record,
Daly City, Calif.

Next Week is Public Schools Week!

I trust that, in your mind, every week is public schools week. However, we do have to set aside a time of every year for such a wonderful concentration of perception.

And there is such a time of concentration at the schools' Open House. It is a week resulting from the combined efforts of administrators, teachers and civic leaders. It is a time of perception because it gives us the faculty of receiving knowledge of external things by the medium of the senses. Therefore it must be important to all people.

It is important for us all to show interest by promoting it, this Public Schools Week, all that we can. One way is to join in with the youngsters and other parents and with the teachers, to make it a success. The success of an occasion is met by the support of everyone concerned and you and I know that we are all concerned when we meet one Education Faction. Let's all go to school next week and see what goes on. That is an excellent way to become well-acquainted with the school.

For those of you who have not yet been introduced to your schools, will find we have a large school district, comprising Westlake, Daly City, Broadmoor, Colma and Garden Village. In this large district we are expanding in every way. It is up to this large community to make sure that the spirit of Public Schools Week is not neglected. Yes we have sums of money and sums of children to work with. It will take the views and efforts of parents and civic leaders to make sure that we attain the best educational system. I am appealing to the community of our various villages and sections in our large district to take an active part.

The part everyone can play is to know what is going on, to know your civic minded people, those who have always been community-minded, not just at election time. It is so much better to know what is going on than to have issues "sprung" on us from time to time. I know that the voice of the people really counts. I have attended numerous meetings which concern my community and home and have always found that suggestions from the people have been honored and followed.

So let us all show a combined interest and let us have an Educational System that will be an example to others. Remember that the old phrase still stands "The children and youths of today are our leaders of the future." We need to know our schools and to know our representatives who carry on our school affairs, the Board of Trustees who are elected by you the people. I have filed my name for trustee for the Jefferson Elementary School District because I am eager to give of my experience and time for the improvement of all education.

Sincerely yours,
Ruth Macdonald Fisher

Red Cross Workers Unite In Drive

All solicitors and chapter volunteers in the San Mateo County Red Cross Chapter are being invited to become members of the "Chain Gang," links in the chain of workers who are willing to put forth one last desperate effort to make the 1951 Fund drive a success, according to Mrs. Harry Durand, Fund Chairman.

Mrs. Durand stated that each one is being asked to "raise ten dollars more by giving a party, holding a neighborhood pot-luck dinner or procuring the money by any legitimate means." Only 72% of the chapter's minimum quota of $135,000 has been subscribed to date.

"If every member of the 'Chain Gang' of more than 3,000 volunteers will raise an extra ten dollars, the total added to what will come in from a few unreported sources, will put this year's campaign over the top," Mrs. Durand said.

California Last Week

The Governor stayed close to Sacramento until Friday, when he went to Los Angeles for a series of conferences, and returned to San Francisco for an "off-the-record" gang dinner with the press club in that city. Appointed John H. Satler of Los Angeles to the California Horse Racing Board, and announced Natural Resources would appoint Newton B. Drury, former head of National Parks, to Chief of the State Division of Beaches and Parks. Took pen in hand to sign a large number of minor bills, and made several minor appointments.

The Legislature: Assembly with only one dissenting vote, got Governor Warren's budget out of the way, and the document now passes to the State Senate where it is being heard by Senate Finance Committee. Both senate and assembly waded into routine and minor bills. President Truman's action in removing General Douglas MacArthur from command brought forth several resolutions, one of which invited the general to talk before the California legislature. A resolution by Senator James E. Cunningham, San Bernardino, memorializing the President to use Chinese Nationist forces in Korea, was passed, while another by Senator Verne Hoffman, San Joaquin, was defeated.

The Departments: Public Works, which conducts snow surveys, says there is a definite lack of normal snowpack in the Sierra, and indicates some shortages of water may occur this summer. The situation was held critical in Southern California.

V. F. W. Auxiliaries Entertain Prexy

The National President of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary, Sue Ilg of Rhode Island, was entertained by the VFW Auxiliaries of California last Friday night at the Hawaiian Gardens in San Jose.

Among the visitors were the following members from Old Glory Aux. 2044: President Marjorie Johnson, Eleanor Cochran, Ethel Dorn, Bonnie Ellenwood, Marie Gehrig, Clara Poket, Lorraine Schneider, Shirley Walker, C. Johnson, W. Dorn, J. Gehrig and J. Walker.

Ray Brulez installed the officers of Bob Elling Post 810 at San Carlos Saturday night.

President Marjorie Johnson, Eleanor Cochran, Clara Poket, Ruth Brulez, Elizabeth Sorrensen, Marie Gehrig, Catherine Henriques, Bonnie Ellenwood and Lorraine Schneider took part in the installation ceremonies of Auxiliary 8104.

Later they attended the installation ceremonies at Redwood City of Corporal James Lindsey Post 2310 and its auxiliary.

LIONS CLUB OBSERVES PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

The Daly City-Colma Lions Club will recognize the 32nd Observance of Public Schools Week at their regular meeting on Wednesday, April 25, when James R. Tormey, County School Superintendent of San Mateo County will speak to the Lions and their wives on "Core of Democracy."

In addition, children from the Woodrow Wilson Kindergarten Rhythm Band under the direction of Mrs. Jane Boyd and Mrs. Norma Eddy, Kingergarten teachers, will present a musical program.

Jean London Betrothal Told

Home on a two weeks leave from the navy, William Ferro, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ferro, 297 Citrus, took the most important step in his life since he joined the navy six months ago.

William asked Jean London, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill London, 813 Brunswick, to be his wife. She accepted. However, the couple are now engaged; and marriage plans are indefinite.

Both attended Jefferson High School, and are well known in Daly City.

Wililam returned to duty with the navy last Tuesday. He is now at Portsmouth, Virginia where he is in training with the medical corps.

YLI Greets Grand Prexy At Meeting

Amid a theme of April Showers, Emydian Institute No. 154, Young Ladies Institute, was hostess to Mrs. Mary Angeli, Grand President of the Young Ladies Institutes, on Tuesday evening, April 10, at the Holy Angels Parish Hall, Colma.

Other distinguished visitors present during the evening were Grand Secretary, Miss Florentine Schage; Grand Treasurer, Miss Mary McCarthy; District Deputy No. 14, Mrs. Helen McQuaid; Institute Deputy, Miss Lorraine Jones; Grand Directors; Miss Ruth Donohoe and Miss Evelyn Hanes. Visitors from the following institutes were also present: St. Anselms, San Mateo, Carmel, Laurentian, Angela, Notró Dame, and Gleeson.

A new group of members initiated at the meeting included the following: Mrs. Ann Morris, Mrs. June Klopstock, Mrs. Louise Rothchild, Misses Claire Shields, Helen Hankerson and June McCarthy.

The chairman of the evening was Miss Rosemary Flanagan who was assisted by the officers and other members of the Institute.

James Snell PTA To Elect Officers

Now's you chance—whether it be to run yourself, nominate a capable friend, or just go along with the Nominating Committee, which has done a princely job of selecting the officers of the James L. Snell PTA Unit for 1951-1952.

Although the results of their work will be kept secret until meeting night, April 25, the members, Mesdames Don Hager, Leo Brandt, John Spry, John LePine and Lasouley, labored long and searched wide before finally making their choices for the various offices.

The Unit will have its regular monthly meeting at the Broadmoor Community Center on Wednesday evening, April 25, 1951, at 8:00 p.m. As well as the election of ofifcers, an event of importance in itself, the speaker of the evening will be Dr. Leo Cain, whose subject will be "Different Doesn't Mean Better or Worse." Dr. Cain's subject bids fair to be one of the most challenging and interesting of our entire program of the year.

The hostesses for the evening will be the Fourth Grade Room Mothers, under the chairmanship of Mesdames Pless and Bostwick.

San Bruno Man Named In Suit

The driver of the automobile which struck and killed Dominic Guagliardo, 15 Shakespeare street, December 8, was named defendant in a $50,675 suit filed in Superior Court this week.

Aldo Ferraris, 1348 Williams Avenue, San Bruno, is the driver. The suit charged him with alleged negligent driving. Guagliardo, a 68-year-old pensioner, was struck by the machine as he crossed Mission street, about 150 feet below the crossing at the Bank of America.

The suit was filed by Michael Guagliardo, administrator of Guagliardo's estate.

Colma PTA
PLANS MADE FOR SPRING FESTIVAL HERE

The executive board meeting of the Colma PTA was held April 17 at 10 a. m. in the Colma Community Center.

Mrs. John Wiesner had some of her chairmen chosen for the approval of the board. Plans were discussed for the May Day participation. The budget for the coming year was worked on.

Delegates chosen for the District Installation were seelcted on April 19 at Ravenswood.

General meeting day is May 8 at 1:30 p. m. at the Colma Community Center; at which time the president will give her State Convention report.

Reports

Mrs. Herbert Kern reports that the following room representatives helped in giving hearing tests: Mrs. Angelo Tuvo, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Urbano Maffei, Mrs. John Wiesner, Mrs. Shirley Hess.

Safety: Does your child have a fair chance to survive in traffic? The child who learns safety . . . learns the way to a longer life. Extra caution may mean a child's life. It's worth it!

The Bicycle Age! The boy looks forward to his first bicycle and whether he keeps it for the never-ending enjoyment, or it becomes a vehicle of tragedy depends in a great measure on his parents' wisdom in supervising his use of it. Bicycle deaths strike hardest in the 5 to 15 year age group. Seven out of every ten bicycle fatalities in 1949 were in this age bracket.

Injuries, all of them painful and many of them permanent, were suffered by more than 15,000 children under 15 years of age in 1949, in bicycle accidents, states the National Bicycle Safety Council.

Parents, set him a good example! Death awaits even when the most skillful bicycle rider if he ignores the rules of safe cycling:

Signal all intentions; observe all signs and signals; never hitch on moving vehicles, carry no passengers; keep bicycles in good mechanical condition with lights, reflectors and a horn that actually works.

Big Schow

We wish to thank the Seventh Grade Room Representatives for their cooperation in the hospitality shown at the opening of the new Colma School.

On Monday, April 16 at 11:15 a. m. Mrs. John Wiesner, president; Mrs. Jerdan Hopper, past president with Mrs. Carl Berg, past president of the Crocker P. T. A. attended the first assembly held. We were presented with a copy of the Student Body constitution. The girls and boys show wonderful cooperation. And we wish them luck in the new Colma school.

Lucis A. Linehares

Funeral services for Lucis A. Linhares, 83, were held in the W. C. Lasswell & Company Chapel and in Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church Saturday morning.

Linhares, a resident of Daly City for 58 years, died Thursday night at his home, 80 Shakespeare Street, following a long illness.

He is survived by his wife, Mary; six sons, William, Milton, Arthur, Louis, Clifford and Kenneth Linhares; and a daughter, Mrs. Veronica Anderson, all of Daly City.

Until his retirement, Linhares was employed by the Daly City school department as a custodian.

Burial was in Holy Cross Cemetery.

Lutheran Forum Speaker Announced

Bethel Lutheran Church, Alemany Boulevard and Huron Avenue, has been selected as the meeting place of the Lutheran churches of San Francisco and the Peninsula, for the Laymen's Forum sponsored by the California and Nevada District of the Lutheran Laymen's League, to be conducted next Wednesday evening, April 25, at 8 o'clock.

The Rev. John E. Hermann, St. Louis, Mo., the Steward Counselor of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, is the speaker. The subject of his address is: "Striving Toward A Stewardship-Conscious Congregation."

The subject of stewardship is of vital importance at the present time because of the need of the Church and the message of the Gospel for the world today, as well as the extensive missionary program of the Church. Col. L. W. Meinzen, U. S. Army, Retired, will serve as Moderator.

The devotional period will be conducted by the local pastor, the Rev. Herbert P. Schroeder. Elmer H. Ohlendorf, a member of the District Board of Governors of the League, is chairman of the Arrangements Committee.

Lutheran Church Honors New Members At Meet

New members will be the guests of honor at the Congregational Fellowship Tea and meeting at 3:30 Sunday afternoon at the Lutheran Church of Our Savior.

Sunday School and Bible Classes are held every Sunday morning at 9:45 at the church, situated at Garfield and Junipero Serra Boulevard. The Divine Worship Service follows at 11 a.m.

There also is a Sunday evening Bible Hour at 7:30.

E. Palo Alto Girl Wins At Spelling

A 13-year-old East Palo Alto girl won the San Mateo spelling championship Friday from a field of 14 contestants including Linda Amundsen of Daly City.

By spelling "subtle" correctly and then "whistling" Emily Bartholomew beat out 13-year-old Bob Hamrdla of San Mateo who stumbled on "subtle." He spelled "suttle."

Third place went to Richard Meredith of Redwood City who went down on "difficulty."

By winning the county title Emily earned the right to compete in the San Francisco Newssponsored state finals April 28 in San Francisco. Winner of that event will enter the national finals in Washington, D.C.

Judges for the one-and-a-half hour meet held at El Crystal School were Mrs. G. J. Sirex, president of the 17th District PTA; Mrs. Janice Robinson, dean of girls at Capuchino High School; and Ray Spangler, columnist. James R. Tormey, County Superintendent of Schools, was pronouncer.

The meet was arranged by Willard Engvall, San Bruno elementary superintendent.

Woman Accidentally Stabs Self In Family Quarrel

A Daly City woman was treated Friday in Junipero Serra Hospital for a self inflicted knife wound she suffered in a family quarrel.

Police reported that Mrs. Bonnie Lasker, 30, of 49 Bela Street, accidentally stuck a kitchen knife in her left wrist during the quarrel.

Local Boy Almost Touches Off Bomb

A 10-year-oid Daly City boy had a close call with death or mutilation Wednesday when he picked up a tin can containing a metal contrivance, according to an Army demolition expert.

Members of the Daly City Police Department also were endangered when the find, a detonating fuse from a Japanese 37 mm. shell, was brought to them.

The boy who picked it up, Robert Heinzle of 60 Mateo avenue, was intrigued by the Japanese lettering on the can and brought it home. An older brother, William, sensing danger, brought it to police headquarters.

When summoned by Chief Wilbur Sunderland, the demolition expert said that it could have been set off quite easily.

Firemen Hold Ball Saturday, May 12

A big dance with entertainment is on tap for Saturday evening, May 12, when the Daly City Fire Department will hold its annual ball in the high school auditorium.

This event, however, is more than just a dance. It is a benefit for the department's widows and orphans. All proceeds will go to their fund.

Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy heads the committee on arrangements that hopes to make this ball the biggest and best yet.

Couples attending will dance to the music of Howard Frederic and his band. The entertainment will come between dances.

Red Cross Drive To Continue

The women who come so close to putting this year's Red Cross drive over the top, will make one more last move to reach the $2,900 goal this week.

Mrs. Marion McKaskle, district chairman, said the women will hold small parties in an effort to raise about $900. The parties are to be given at the various homes during the week.

Again Mrs .McKaskle thanked Mrs. Wayne Herzog, district chairman for Westlake; and Mrs. Eve Hobbs, district chairman for Daly City, for their work in making the drive a near success. Both women, as well as scores of workers, have pledged themselves to try to reach the final goal.

"When asked to give to the Red Cross, don't hesitate," Mrs. McKaskle said. "The money you give is like a down payment on an insurance policy which protects your future against disaster."

Local Cubs Choose Dramatic Episode For Scout-O-Rama

One of the most picturesque episodes in the history of the West, "The Driving of the Golden Spike," has been selected by a group of Cub Scouts in Daly City as the theme for their act in the big 1951 Scout-O-Rama to be held at the Cow Palace May 4-5.

To bring to life the ceremony that celebrated the completion of the first transcontinental railroad, the boys in Pack 63 will have a replica of the old steam engine whose load of famous passengers witnessed the memorable driving of the last spike on May 10, 1869.

Cubmaster Michael V. Cubic of 549 Hillside Blvd., Daly City, is engineering the big construction job, working to achieve an authentic reconstruction of the quaint old locomotive that made history in a by-gone century.

One of Many

This act is only one of the many scenes which will be dramatically presented at this year's show in the colorful "Land of Liberty" event, in which more than 2,000 Cub Scouts will participate.

Mothers, fathers and leaders throughout the the area are busy helping the boys to build their props, putting together costumes and arranging for rehearsals of the scenes which will span three centuries of America's growth, highlighting such episodes as the landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth Rock, the Battle of Bunker Hill, and the signing of the United Nations Charter in San Francisco.

Another attraction in this year's extravaganza, in which 4,000 boys representing all branches of Scouting will take place, is the action-packed Physical Fitness Event featuring calisthenics, judo, tumbling, boxing, footbal, and a variety of other skills and games. A Disaster Event will point up the importance of the civilian defense training which Explorers have been receiving under a special program, and the many facets of outdoor life will be demonstrated in an event featuring Camping and Pioneering skills.

In the city-wide ticket sales campaign, the Lake Merced District is in fourth place this week. Troop 92, under Scoutmaster Ed Howard, has sold the highest percentage of its ticket quota in the district, followed by Troop 250, Pack 143, and Explorer Post 10.

Colma District Of Red Cross Raises $1902.73

The Colma District of the Red Cross has raised $1902.73 towards its goal of $2125, Chairman Mrs. Margaret Pauline Brown announced this week.

Members of the Colma District will continue to work for their quota, which is $525 more than last year's

Mrs. Brown thanks all who have aided in the drive. "We all know how short the Red Cross is on supplies," Mrs. Brown said.

Sierra Valley, in Sierra County, was once the bed of an ancient inland sea.

Recreation Department Sponsors Folk Dancing

Folk and square dancing classes, sponsored by the Recreation Department, come to Daly City April 27.

Under the capable leadership of Muriele and Raymond Pabst, classes will be offered in beginner and intermediate groups at Castle Hall, 7339 Mission Street.

The schedule: beginners, 7:30 a.m. to 9:15 p.m.; intermediate, 8:45 p.m. to 10:30 p.m.; and square dancing classes will overlap each class.

Dancers are reminded to bring low and comfortable shoes.

The intermediate classes will include such well known dances as Dreistreyer, Russian Peasant, Sicilian Tarantella, Blue Pacific, and Skaters' Waltz.

Public School Weeks Slated

Plans are under way for the 32nd annual observance of Public Schools Week in the Jefferson Elementary School District with Hugh Falconer General Supervisor of the District serving as chairman of the observance.

Other members of the committee include James Snell, district superintendent: Mrs. Pauline Kagan, art supervisor; Mrs. Muriel Vint, music supervisor; Mrs. Ethel Hahn, principal Woodrow Wilson School; Mrs. Winifred McGrath, principal General Pershing School; Mrs. Hazel Colwell, principal Thornton School; Miss Marjorie Tobia, principal Crocker and Colma Schools; Miss Marie Traynor, principal Jefferson School; Miss Aileen Suber, principal Garden Village School; Mrs. Ruth Mayo, Home Economics teacher and Mr. R. L. Crane, manual arts & crafts teacher.

There will be an open house at each of the elementary schools of the District on the following evenings: Woodrow Wilson School, Tuesday, April 24; Thornton, Colma and General Pershing Schools, Wednesday, April 25, from 7 to 9 p.m.; Garden Village, same time Thursday evening.

A complete copy of the program will appear in the paper next week. Parents and friends are cordially invited to visit the school during this time.

Rev. Jope Presents Sermon Sunday Morning

The sermon by Clifford H. Jope, minister of the First Christian Church, will be "Preparation for the New Era," at the 10 a.m. Worship and Communion of the Ocean View Christian Church, 107 Sagamore street, Sunday.

This will be another of the Great Short Stories of Jesus. The choir of young people, directed by Mrs. Margaret Smith, will sing the responses and the anthem, "Open Mine Eyes."

The Sunday School will assemble at 9:15 a.m. with classes for all ages.

Real Estate Board To Sponsor Course

Real estate investment for the laymen will be discussed in a four lecture course sponsored by the San Francisco Real Estate Board in cooperation with the University Extension, University of California.

The course will open April 30 in the University Extension auditorium, 540 Powell street, San Francisco, it is announced by F. Burt Hulting, president of the Real Estate Board.

Designed primarily to inform the investing public, the program arranged by J. Mortimer Clark, chairman of the Board's education committee, will include discussion of such topics as investment opportunities in real estate, buying property, transaction procedure and successful real estate ownership.

Lectures will be held from 7:30 to 9:30 on Monday evenings, April 30, May 7, 14 and 21. Enrollments wil lbe accepted at the San Francisco Real Estate Board, 105 Montgomery street. Information on enrollment is available at any University Extension office.

DC Youths Held For Auto Theft

An investigation of a hit-run accident on Mission Street Monday night led police to the arrest of three Daly City youths for auto theft.

Charged with stealing a 1951 convertible and a 1951 sedan from the Santos Souther Warehouse in San Francisco were Edward L. Jones, 21, 268 Wiliits Street, Richard Tooke, 19, and a 16-year-old lad.

The arrest was made when police were investigating the hit-run accident in which Tooke allegedly rammed into a parked auto with one of the stolen cars.

The youths were booked en route to San Francisco police.

Crocker Installs New PTA Officers

Mrs. T. M. Mullen was installed as president of the Crocker Parent Teacher Association last Tuesday evening, April 10 at 8 o'clock.

The Crocker library was the scene of the event and a record crowd gathered for the annual installation of the association's new officers. The library was decorated in the spring motif and a flower and jewel ceremony was used by the unit's installing officer, Mrs. Stella Jensen of Colma and the Seventeenth district.

The ceremony sparkled and the evening was very light and gay—all the meeting appearing to be part of the program which was high-lighted by student produced music under the direction of Mrs. Muriel Vint, the elementary district music supervisor.

The large interested crowd included many special guests from the Seventeenth district, among whom was Mrs. G. J. Sirex, the Seventeenth District president-elect for the coming year. Local notables were also present. Nearly all the teachers of the Crocker school were present as the affair was for the purpose of installing the new officers and greeting and meeting the teachers of the school.

Excitement reached a high pitch when the meeting adjourned and the banquet table, laden with refreshments, was unveiled. Mrs. James Jordon Sr. and Mrs. William Hobbs had worked the entire day devising the most interesting looking and tasting hors d' oeuvres and canapes repleat with punch, cake and coffee. Mrs. Carl Berg greeted and thanked her many co-workers and helpers who assisted her during her year as president, and Mrs. Mullen was welcomed into the group. She stated her desire to serve to the best of her ability for the best interests of the unit.

DEAR PARENTS

By Jane Keith

"Me and the "Gineral" was jist like that" said Moriarty, wiping his mouth with the back of a large, hairy hand and giving a stiff, two fingered salute to illustrate his point. He waved his audience closer with one brawny arm and called for another drink across the bar.

"There he'd be—the Gineral, I mean—up front of the man with his sabre out flahin' and his horse a skitterin' and rarin' to go. A fine figure of a man to make the boys fergit the cold fear and salt pork in the bellies of thimselves and stand up straight to salute!"

Moriarty paused to spit on the sawdust covered floor and drain his glass. "The Johnny Rebs were jist over the hill, see, waitin' for the likes of us to start shootin' the likes of them and all the blue boys stand there, waitin' for the Gineral to give the signal. He stands up in his stirrups—the Gineral, I mean—and gives a shout!"

"MORIARTY!" he yells "ARE YOU THERE?"

"I am that, Gineral!" I sings back at him.

"THEN LET THE BATTLE BEGIN!"

"Like I told ye," Moriarty gurgled, slopping whiskey down over his chin, "Me and the Gineral wash jish like that! Jish like——"

He slid to the floor, the bottle still clutched in his hand, but came up fighting mad when a greenhorn miner tried to hoist him to his feet and nearly got himself slugged for his trouble. The whiskey hit first. . . .

The miners who listened to the story by the bar of that "Cripple Creek" saloon had finished their drinks and hangover. They were busy next day working their claims in the biggest gold field since California, but Moriarty was writhing in agony on the barkeeper's narrow bunk—full and overflowing with the horrors of delerium tremens.

"Holy Mary, Mother of God" he moaned,, How you and I have suffered! They nailed your son to a wooden cross and now they're hanging me to a telegraph pole." He prayed on—beating his head against the rough wooden planking of the wall and straining at the blanket strips holding him down. "Holy Mary . . ."

The stody of Moriarty and the "Gineral" came to me from my husband, who heard it from his uncle who heard it happen in Cripple Creek back in '93—The story of an Irish braggart, dreamer and drunkard whose end I do not know. A man like other men —who in his extremity called on God for help and understanding and somehow felt sure of receiving it.

God rest his soul — and "Let those among ye who are without sin—cast the first stone" at his memory.

"THE CONVERSION OF A JAILER"

By

Rev. James R. Adkins

And

Rev. Calvin R. Zeissler

ASSEMBLY OF GOD CHURCH

The Bible is the Book of experience. It tells of God's dealings with persons of every condition, from women who were morally downtrodden to rulers in their power. It includes shepherds, fishermen, government officials, soldiers, lawyers, and religious leaders. In each case where there was acceptance of God's mercy, there was forgiveness and blessing; in each case where there was rejection and hardness of heart, there was condemnation. So greatly has God desired the salvation of all that, in sending forth His followers, He said, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." Once the gospel is preached, the responsibility rests on those who hear as to the choice they make and the result of the same. "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved," Christ said, but "he that believeth not shall be damned." To believe is to accept. To believe not is to reject. Which shall it be with you?

Today we are centering our thought on an unusual object of salvation. It is the custodian of the jail at Philippi. In the jail were many prisoners. Among these were two men who had been imprisoned because they preached to the people that God had given the world a Savior which is Jesus Christ. Of course, their preaching had disturbed things...and all true preaching still disturbs. It disturbs man's sleeping complacency. It awakens conscience. It tells man that he is lost, and warns him to flee the wrath to come. Man doesn't like this. He prefers going on in his usual ways until at last, wakening out of his ease, he finds himself plunging over the Niagara of perdition into the eternal home of the lost. But it is not God's desire that any should perish; therefore, He sends the gospel of warning, crying through His servants, "Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light."

At Philippi was a poor girl, possessed with a demon spirit of divination. Paul cast out the evil spirit. This provoked trouble, for through this slave girl her winers were obtaining their wealth. They had Paul and his companion, Silas, cast into the city prison. There the two servants of the Lord prayed and sang praise unto God at midnight, when suddenly the prison doors were shaken open and all within were loosed. The jailer, supposing that all were escaped, would have killed himself, but Paul cried out, "Do thyself no harm, for we are all here." This brought an awakening to the jailer. He perceived that Paul and Silas had brought to the city the message of God, and said, "What must I do to be saved?"

Now listen to the answer; see how simple it is: "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." Acts 16:31. That is all that was required of him, and that is all that is required of you. Will you not believe? Take Christ by faith, and God will do the rest.

SAN MATEO JC NINE TANGES WITH SAN JOSE STATE RESERVES TODAY, BEAT CAL., USF JUNIOR VARSITIES

Bulldogs To Use Leal On Mound Against Spartans

Sporting a 17-5 record, the San ateo Junior College nine travels San Jose today (April 19) to tempt to even matters with the partan reserves.

Coach Herb Hudson will send al Leal to the hill to avenge a 4 set-back the Bulldogs received om the Spartans last week.

The Bulldogs copped their 16th cision of the campaign Tues- y when they dropped the Cal serves, 4-1, at Berkeley.

Don Olcese and John Alden ared the mound duties for the ulldogs, and set the Cinnamon ears down with six hits.

First Sacker Don Visconti paced e Matean attack with three sin- e in five trips. Olcese, who shift- to center field after hurling e first four frames, collected a ir of singles in four appearances the plate.

A four-run Bulldog sixth inning ased a 1-0 Cal lead, and gave lden his fourth win of the sea- n. Six one-basers did the dam- e for San Mateo in the frame. A o-run single by Jack Holmquist ed the game for the jaycee.

The Bulldogs pushed around the serves from another university ednesday when they defeated SF, 9-0, at Fitzgerald Field.

Jack Holmquist, normally a ird sacker, sent the Dons down ith three hits.

Holmquist, who pitched only ree innings previously this sea- n, struck out seven and walked x in gaining his first win. He ded his own cause by banging t a pair of hits.

In picking up two singles, Left elder Don Kemp scored two runs d batted in two more to pace e Bulldogs in the 17th win.

Unemployment Shows Decrease

SACRAMENTO, APRIL 13.—(CNS) — Although showing some decrease, unemployment insurance claims for California held to the 132,052 mark for the week ending March 29, the State Department of Employment announced here today.

In the South San Francisco office of the department, 327 claims were filed, and 284 were paid, according to records in the department's report.

The 132,052 claims filed for the week compared to 137,858 for the previous week, and 284,476 for the corresponding week a year ago.

Claims paid totaled 104,935, compared to 194,424 the week previous, and 233,160 for the same week a year ago.

Jefferson, OLPH Win Softball Tilts

Taking advantage of a big first inning Jefferson rolled to a 14-5 win over the Colma Reds Tuesday afternoon in a Junior Softball League game.

It was a nip-and-tuck affair after the "welcome" frame.

Joe Machado hurled the first shut-out of the new season when OLPH defeated the Colma Blues, 16-0, last Thursday. The Colma squad, however, will be a tough team to beat once they get organized and find their best pitcher.

Pack 36 Opens Baseball Season With 4-0 Victory Over Pack 83

by Mrs. E. K. Whinnen

Well, it's that season again for the Cubs in Pack 36, for all the packs for that matter. . . baseball, you know. Pack 36 has started the season with a bang, meeting and defeating one of the toughest packs in the National League, Pack 83, in a well balanced game, by a score of 4 to 0. Pack 36 really had its fingers crossed before opening the season against this pack. Not jitters, exactly, but a wholesome respect for a hard playing pack—a pack that goes on the field to win. The instability of attendance at the practices that was worrying the coaches in the pregame practices seems to have lessened and the boys are settling down to work.

Two more games were played last week. Pack 36 played Pack 155, Saturday, the 14th, at Aptos playground, losing 4 to 3. This was the "B" teams of the National Leageu. The "B" teams of the American League, played at Aptos on Wednesday, the 10th, scoring 31 to 5. The opposing pack was 15.

"B's" Play Tuesday

Another game for the "B" teams, American League is scheduled for Tuesday, at 4:30, at Lawton playground. This game will be played against Pack 41. The "A" teams of the National League will play Saturday, 21st, 10:30 a.m. at Aptos, Pack 36 versus Pack 123, a tough pack too.

Coach Rosenberg gave a short and optimistic talk to the boys on their playing, and outlined some of the schedule for the future. The Cubs responded enthusiastically.

At the last Pack meeting, Cubmaster Smith, had each den give a report on its activities in its den meeting held during the week. If continued this should be a strong incentive to Den Mothers to make den meetings interesting. What could be worse than having your Cubs get up in Pack and say, "Ah, we didn't do much," then have to sit there and listen to other dens tell about trips, craft, etc.

Talent at Meeting

Unexpected talent showed forth from two of our boys when they got up on the stage and sang, "My Girl's a Corker," to the delight of the whole pack and parents. They liked it so well, the boys had to encore with the same song. Members of this duet were Jimmy Martin and Jerry Irwin. Toby Forbes and Johnny Fern sang, "The Halls of Montezuma." Toby is our star singer, but Johnny rather surprised us. He's usually too full of mischief to show his talents in any other line.

Two weeks from last Tuesday, there wlil be a talent competition among the Cubs. All Cubs are encouraged to play, sing or dance, whatever they are best at.

Handicraft displays by the dens were on exhibition last pack meeting. Some interesting things are being done by the dens. The boys and Den Mothers went from display to display admiring and learning new ways of doing things, and new crafts for their own dens.

Dinner Scheduled

The Pack dinner is scheduled for Wednesday, May 2nd, at El Jardin Cafe, for Sponsors, Committee men and Den Mothers. This is the "Thank You" for the season's work.

Den 16, with Den Mothers Irene Rosenberg and Mildred Whinnen, took a hike down Sickles to the Railroad tracks, thence along the tracks to the Junior Museum, last den meeting, where the boys had an interesting time looking at the snakes, frogs, rocks, minerals, flowers, etc. Makes a nice trip for a den or girl scout troop, and isn't too far to walk both ways.

Compulsory Retirement Halted For 'Emergency'

APRIL 12. (CNS)—Compulsory retirement of state workers who have reached retirement age would be halted until 90 days after the 1953 legislature adjourns, or until the present period of emergency is ended by the governor, under a bill passed by the assembly.

The measure, sponsored by Assemblyman Francis Lindsay, Placer county, is designed to avert a manpower shortage in state personel due to demands of the military services and defense program.

Manufacturing Flasks Banned in California

APRIL 2. (CNS)—A bill banning the sale or carrying of wine in flasks manufactured to contain distilled spirits was passed by the assembly.

The bill, introduced by Assemblyman Charles S. Gubser, Santa Clara county, amends the alcoholic beverage control act to tighten restrictions on the sale of wine.

Gubser said primary purpose of the bill is to discourage wine drinkers from toting a flask which was intended for distilled spirits, and to clarify the present law so it may be more easily enforced.

Jeff Frosh Hurler Tosses One-Hitter

A pinch-hit single with two away in the bottom of the seventh inning robbed Jefferson High's Don Dellbon of a no-hit, no-run game last Thursday when the Jeff frosh-soph defeated Palo Alto, 3-0, in a P.A.L. game here.

The shut-out was the 11th win in 12 starts for Coach Clarence Lair's charges.

Johnson Scores In Speech Contest

Al Johnson, Jefferson High School senior, went on to his second victory in the Lions Club's annual speaking contest Wednesday.

The local lad won the regional finals in Palo Alto, and now goes on to the district tourney at Hoberg's in Lake County May 5.

Johnson represents the Daly City-Colma Lions Club.

Previous to his Wednesday night win, Johnson had come out on top in the north county contest last week.

Tranberg Head Man At Rod & Gun Shoot

The Daly City Rod and Gun Club held its annual shoot Sunday at the Coastside Range, and 15 of their sharpshooters turned out early. At least one of their members must have been there since dawn, because when Ed Nenstiel and Jack Tranberg got down there at 7 o'clock this member had empty shells and had shot out targets all over the place.

When shooting began his shoulder was so sore he could hardly shoot, but in spite of it Jim Fox came third in the big bore match in which Tranberg took first and Nenstiel second.

In the small bore match Tranberg again dominated the shoot by taking first place. Nenstiel took second and the Daly City service station operator George Archer came in third.

In the deer shoot which was a lulu everybody got buck fever—no wonder there are so few deer bagged by members of DCR&GC—and out of sheer luck Tranberg managed to shake into first place while Al Spears and Nenstiel place second and third, respectively.

The trap shoot first place went to the club's sharp-shooting treasurer, George Lech, who did a fine job in doing so. Second place went to Tranberg. Spears and Smokey Shalkowski had to shoot it out three times for third place with Spears the victor. But Smokey made a good account of himself and claims next year he will beat them all—nice going Smokey.

Other members like Scally, Pearlman, Flansberg and Loftin made good score also.

The club is thankful for the help which Mrs. Eleanor Lech gave them by registering the shooters.

San Mateo JC Cindermen Down Contra Costa In Big 7 Meet, 68-54

San Mateo Junior College cindermen came from behind to rack up a 68-54 win over Contra Costa West in a Big Seven Conference meet Friday on the Burlingame oval.

At the end of the first four events Contra Costa had a 22-14 lead, but then the Bulldogs made their move. They swept the pole vault event and Walt Burnett won the 880 by 60 yards.

John Manson chipped in 13 points toward the San Mateo victory by taking firsts in the 120 high hurdles and the broadjump, and placing second in the 220 low.

Dave Conway won the 220 low, came second in the 100, and was third in the 120 high.

Ted Murphy added six points with a first in the 220 and a third in the 100, while Bill Mills was taking a first in the discuss and a second in the shot.

JEFFERSON HORSEHIDERS GO AFTER THIRD PAL WIN OF SEASON AGAINST WILLOW GLEN HIGH AT SAN JOSE

INDIANS ENTER FRAY AFTER WEEK'S LAYOFF

Coach Gleen South takes his charges to San Jose tomorrow (April 20) to face Willow Glen High in a Peninsula Athletic League game.

The Indians, boasting a loop record of two wins and one tie, resume their title defense after a week's layoff.

Willow Glen enters the fray with one win and two losses on their slate. Their only win is against a cellar dwellers South San Francisco High. They nosed out South City last week, 7-6.

Coach South will use either Ed Cereghino or Chuck Donley against the San Jose school. Both hurlers have a 1-0 record, and are well rested to go again.

Cereghino's last outing was against Burlingame High when he hooked up with Randy Curtis in a 12 inning pitching duel. The game was finally called because of darkness with the score deadlocked at 1-1.

The big right hander racked up his win in the opening game of league play when Jeff downed Lincoln High, 9-2. Cereghino fanned 13 batters in that game. In the 2 inning game he whiffed 19.

Last Friday Donley established himself as Jeffs' number two starting pitcher when handed San Jose High a three hit whitewashing.

Donley sent down via the strikeout route nine San Jose batters. He passed only three.

The Indians gathered only four hits off Pitcher Kimura, but combined them with seven San Jose miscues.

Leo Gianecchini broke up a scoreless game in the fifth frame when he cluted a double to send home Mansel Roland and Donley with the first two runs.

The final two tallies came the inning when Nieve tripled in Leveroni and Jenkins.

Weststates Topples Park-Presidio, 4-1

Behind the brilliant three-hit pitching performance of Reg Hartje, Westate Realty defeated Park Presidio, 4-1, Sunday.

Hartje also collected two hits to aid in his own cause. Vince Rodriquez banged out two-for-three to pace the Westates nine.

Second Baseman George Elhers and Catcher Heine Schuback were the defensive stars.

Jaysees Battle In Practice Golf Match

Undefeated in league play, Coach Ray Balsley's San Mateo Junior College golfers journey to Modesto tomorrow, April 20, for a practice match with Modesto JC at Del Rio Country Club.

The two clubs meet in a Big Seven Conference match at Modesto on May 11.

The Bulldogs prepped for the match with a 18-9 win over the San Jose State junior varsity on Wednesday.

Ken West, Bill McMichael, Jerry Drever and Jim Bennett were the individual winners for the Bulldogs.

In their last loop match San Mateo defeated Contra Costa West, 11 and a half to 8 and a half last Friday. Kenny West paced the win with a 3-0 win over Costa's Bill Watkins with a 74.

TALK OF THE TOWN

By DIANE DALY

Women, with the exception of a very few, are not supposed to know anything about the government, politics and—heavens no!—not the Military. So the item appearing in a S.F. daily concerning a man who crowned his wife with a radio, for her remarks in regards to the MacArthur ouster, presumably strikes an answering note in more than one home. While not going so far as to commit mayhem perhaps, there has been a sharp difference of opinion with the feminine viewpoint, a factor to be reckoned with.

Contrary to some analysis, I do not find that women are motivated by sentiment and "blinded" by myths of an "idol." I find that for the most part women are looking at this thing objectively, rather than considering the pro and con merits of personal strategy. What they cannot ignore is the tactless means employed to resolve this grave matter. An order to return for conference or even a change of commands could have been employed to the greatest potential in reconciling their differences in policy. To brashly go beyond the "point of no return" without first ascertaining course and destination is unthinkable. To reward the general for his years of service with a flat dismissal, when he holds the confidence and trust of thousands of orientals to whom "face" is an inbred principle, is pure folly. It can only undermine our position in the east and intensify feeling against this country.

Face is the oriental interpretation of integrity, honor, and reputation. It is come by only through practicing constant adherance to the highest principles of honor and respect, and it cannot be bought or traded.

Women in our town, regardless of the many sides of the controversy, are sickened by the needless sacrifice of prestige. As for the general I believe he will consider any personal cost justifiable if it will bring about a sound military policy in Korea that the foot soldier can believe in and fight for to an equitable and triumphant conclusion.

MacARTHUR and McARTHUR

The last minute change of course of the General's arrival, disappointed no one in Daly City quite as much as it did our own Douglas McArthur. He is the eight year old son the of Jack McArthurs of 319 Woodrow, and was named after the five star general, while his father was serving in the Hawaiian command. Also disappointed was his uncle, Alex McArthur, 3299 San Jose, who planned to show his two little youngsters the man under whom he served, when he was a part of the First Amphibious Marine Corps in the South Pacific. Alex is a prominent member of the VFW and FOE in Daly City.

ON LEAVE

Arriving in the midst of a welcome for a general was Al Barsten, on leave from San Diego Naval Training Center, where he has just completed his basic training. Former ace of the Mission Rifle and Pistol Club, Al attended Jefferson High and is well known in the younger set. He will be greeting friends at 526 Vista Grande Avenue.

ADVENTURESOME

An unfortunate accident happened last week to little "Penny" Miguel, eleven months old daughter of the Howard Miguels, 98 Cottonwood Dr. In a quick and exploratory move she fell from her high-chair and fractured her skull. Although hospitalized, Penny is at home again, and is recuperating nicely.

A four day skiing jaunt at the Sugar Bowl ended on a sad note, when Mrs. Robert Miller, 92 Gambetta, fell and broke her ankle. Husband and daughter Karen were luckier, and had a good time but are now doing all the fetching and carrying while mother's ankle is in a cast.

CANASTA CAPRICE

The yearly cash pay-off from their Canasta Club found Mrs. Clyde Lynch, Mrs. Henry Warren, Mrs. Al Arnaudo and Mrs. Ed Nenstiel occupying a table for cocktails and dinner at Bimbo's 365 Club—adjourning later to the "Gay Nineties" . . . Aha.

WRONG GUESS

"Top of the Hill" observers were a little chagrined to find that the new escort seen everywhere with Myra Laws (attractive photographer) is her brother, Harold Pape, of Dubuque, Iowa, who is re-united with his sister after an absence of—fourteen years!

CIGAR PASSING

ANNOUNCING

Dorothy Doyle will resume her duties as receptionist in the offices previously occupied by her late husband, Dr. John Doyle. Taking over his practice is his friend and college of many years, Dr. George C. Cole, graduate of New York and more recently of Washington.

PLAUDITS

Mrs. Joe Lewkowitzs, long time member of Eagles Auxiliary 1848 was honored recently by fellow members, who awarded her with a charter-member pin and a Past President pin. She also received a lovely bouquet of roses in appreciation for her efforts in behalf of the Auxiliary.

PICNIC DAY

Journeying north for the yearly celebration of Cal Aggies' "Picnic Day" at Davis, are Mr. and Mrs. Hugh S. Falconer. They were accompanied by sons, Daniel and Stephen, and were the overnight guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Enright (Prof. bacteriologist). Coincidentally, Mrs. Enright, before her marriage, was Zanobia (Bunny) Rogers of Daly City.

The Falconer boys were pleased and surprised to run into Jeff's Track team consisting of John Bolinger, Vic Baher, Mac McDouglas, Chuck Bluback and Carol Hansen. Coaches Oerlick and Mathews, who drove the boys up to compete in the sports events, were rewarded when Vic Baher placed second in the shot-put. Those who did not shine in the meet made up for it in the evening when the big dance got underway. It followed an Aquacade, held in the outdoor pool, to climax a lovely day of sports, barbecues and social events.

HERALDING:

Forthcoming nuptials of Richard Hankerson, 97 Citrus, son of Mrs. Mary Hankerson, to Beverly Gregori, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rinaldo Gregori, 143 Lee Ave. They will become man and wife Saturday afternoon, with full rites at 11 a.m. Mass at St. Emydius. Richard is the nephew of localite Dan Dolan, and the grandson of Joseph Dolan Sr.

WESTLAKE WEATHERVANE

Setting a high precendent indeed, was the initial Dinner Dance sponsored by the Westlake Improvement Association which was held in the Crystal Room of the Bellevue Hotel last Saturday night. One of the outstanding social events of the year, it was attended by over three hundred guests in a gay and festive mood. Individual tables for parties large and small were grouped around the dance floor cabaret style, each table centered with arrangements of exquisite tulips and lilies. Pleasant informality was the "order of the evening" with no speakers or business to interupt the festivities. An orchestra was on hand to provide music for dancing, which followed the delicious, well served dinner, and a private bar was kept busy supplying the demands of the celebrants. . .

HERE N' THERE

Burkey, lovely in black velvet, with her husband. Also the Walter Martinellis and Lee and Ruth Rice. So many introductions. . . . So many tastefully attired women. . . . So much comraderie and good feeling . . . among these Neighbors! Continuing till the wee hours. . . . With some guests choosing the Hotel's Cocktail Lounge to relax — All agreeing on an encore soon. . . .

CROCKER CLASSIC

The joint installation and teachers reception, held last Tuesday evening at Crocker by the PTA was a very beautiful and impressive affair. Mrs. Stella Jensen, conducted ceremonies in her usual analytical style, following the theme of precious gems. The library was beautifully decorated with Spring blossoms, and many were on hand to welcome the incoming president, Mrs. T. M. Mullen. A program was presented by students, under the direction of Miss Muriel Vint, which was enjoyed immensely. Among those present were: Mrs. G. J. Sirex, (district Prexy) and Mrs. Fader, (1st Vice) who came up from Burlingame. Mrs. Adami attended with the new Pres-elect from Woodrow, Mrs. Carruthers. Mrs. Wiesner represented Colma and Mrs. A. Lauffenburger, of Pershing was installed in office of the Crocker PTA as well.

Mrs. Carl Berg, outgoing Prexy, was gifted with a lovely Corde' bag, for her fine work, and unanimous congratulations were showered on the refreshment committee, who created a festive board of sumptuous proportions, which was well received.

Girl Scout Group Holds Area Meeting

By Brownie

The recent neighborhood meeting of Girl Scout personnel and mothers of the Peoria area, brought out quite a goodly attendance and a wide range of subjects were discussed or reported upon with varying degrees of action taken.

Those attending the meeting included: Mrs. Evelyn Smith, Mrs. Marge Calvin, Mrs. Frances Windhurst, Mrs. Madeline Anderson, Mrs. Roberta Schmale, Mrs. Bruna McKenna, Mrs. Pearl Caine, Mrs. Sciaroni, Mrs. Rench, Mrs. Thorne, Mrs. Andy Salade, Mrs. Beatrice Dunne, Mrs. Mary Larson, Mrs. Evelyn Vers, Mrs. Dorothy Carr and Mrs. Mildred Whinnen.

Not present were about as many more women who received notices, but did not show at the meeting. Most of these women have daughters on the waiting list. Seems timely to explain here that those doing the work now, leaders and co-leaders, cannot take more girls into their troops unless adequate help comes from the mothers of the girls on the waiting list. Any mother who has been wondering why her daughter has been on the waiting list so long and has not gotten into a troop can find the answer here.

Each troop should have a minimum of a leader and a co-leader, and preferably two co-leaders plus three committee members who are willing to do any special job when called on by the leaders. If all the mothers with daughters on the waiting list would turn out and do some of the necessary work and all can contribute some help, no matter how busy they are, the load would be lightened for all and all girls could be taken off the waiting list and put into troops. But—guess that would be Utopia.

To get back to the business of the meeting: The main event to be discussed and planned was the participation of the Girl Scouts in the Spring Festival to be held Sunday, May 6. Mrs. Mary Larson, general girl scout chairman of the event for the Daly City-Colma area, outlined tentative plans. It is hoped two floats may be entered, with girls from some of the troops marching beside the floats strewing flowers from May baskets as they march. Time is short and that entails a lot of work, so such an ambitious plan may have to be curtailed a bit.

Plastic dishes, plates and cups needed for a long time, have been found, O. K.'d by the Council, and ordered. Just how long it will take now for the order to be filled is not known even by the department store where they were ordered.

The repairs to the Peoria street Scout House that were outlined to the City Council last November in a letter to the then City Manager and subsequently referred to the new City Manager, are in the same static condition as then. Nothing whatever has been done, although the neighborhood chairman was informed then and has been re-informed since, that they would be done and that some of the more pressing ones would be taken care of immediately. What do the gentlemen of the City Council consider immediate?

Reports were also made on the Juliet Low teas. Regret to report that the teas for Troops 7 and 11 were cancelled due to the lapse of time caused by sickness and other deterrents. However, these troops are planning an entertainment for the mothers in place of the regular Juliet Low teas.

The meeting was informed that information pertaining to results of the cookie sale could be obtained by reading the "Triad," official publication for Girl Scout registered workers in the area, and could be passed on to the girls who sold the cookies.

Foto Festival Forms Ready

Entry forms for the San Francisco Foto Festival, "Picture of San Francisco Competition," were available here this week. The contest is supervised by the Recreation-Park Department.

Amateur photographers were working overtime preparing prints and slides for the event for which score of prizes valued at well over a thousand dollars will be offered. Deadline for the contest is May 7. No limit has been set on the number of photographs or slides which may be entered and there is no entry fee.

Camera-fans in all parts of Northern and Central California have been invited to exhibit, the only requirement being that the pictures or slides entered be taken in San Francisco. Entry blarks may be procured from the Photography Center, 499 7th St., San Francisco 3.

BAYSHORE VISITACION VALLEY

By Bernice Hendryx JUniper 4-6449

Rumor has it that Bayshore will soon have a new industry.

While I haven't been able to get a definite answer from anyone in the know, the general feeling is that it is pretty much an accepted fact that ground is being broken for a site for Alta Coffee to put up a plant. The site is behind Crown Cork and Seal, off Allin St. Allen St. will be partly paved. If Alta Coffee Company roasts coffee in the valley, the least that can be said is that it will be an improvement on the order from Consolidate Chemical Company. Coffee, even burning coffee, smells better anytime than burning bones, so welcome Alta Coffee.

The people who attended last week's meeting of the Bayshore PTA watched the installation of new officers, but they also came in for an additional ceremony. Accompanied by the lovely candlelight ceremony, a life membership was given to Mrs. G. Robertson. Mrs. Robertson has been an active PTA member for many years, and at present, is a member of our local school board.

New School

In addition to those events, Miss Lipman, the Bayshore Superintendent, spoke on the new school that has been a subject of discussion here for some time. She told the meeting that the plans for our new school have been approved. The site of the new structure will be above and behind the Naval Project, up on the hill. Just when construction will start is not yet known, but from all indications, Bayshore will have its new school, and that's fore sure.

Mrs. Painchaud, the outgoing president of the Bayshore PTA, was presented with a steam iron by the body of the PTA. She wishes to express her thanks to all who participated in making it possible.

There will be a meeting of the Bayshore Improvement Club on Friday, April 27. The meeting will be held in the Sanitary Hall, on Geneva Ave. All residents of Bayshore are invited to attend, and refreshments will be served.

Kitchen Shower

Alene Filarski and Mary Dirks gave a kitchen shower for the Some sixteen ladies were present soon to be bride of Lynn Smith, to extend good wishes to Rosemarie Holmes, and some of them will attend the wedding that will take place at the Lutheran Church on Dolores St. on April 21.

Here is a belated warning for some of the residents of Bayshore. The State Highway Patrol is making the rounds through here, ticketing all autos that are parked facing the wrong way, and that do not have their wheels properly cramped to the curb. It has been a long time since Bayshore has had this sort of attention, and as a result, many of us are a bit careless about which way we park. Highway Patrol has been issuing tickets in here for about a week now, and they are still at it, so watch that parking.

The quilt raffle for the Cancer Drive will be held in the neighborhood this coming week. I should say that tickets will be sold door to door for the raffle, which will be held on April 28, at 2:30 p.m., at the Leta May Shop on Geneva Ave., next door to Scat's Market. The quilt is a Grandmother's Fan design, and hand-quilted.

Telephone Whist

The Ladies Fire Auxiliary will hold the Cancer Benefit telephone whist this Friday evening, April 20. I hear tell that this is fun. You invite your friends to your own home, and have a card game. You keep in touch by phone as to what's going on elsewhere, and a good time is had by all, without having to hire a hall.

The Mr. and Mrs. Club is holding a dance this Saturday nite, April 21, and the proceeds from the dance will also be donated to the Cancer Drive. Carl Alt's ork will provide the music, and the admission will be 50c. Turn out folks. The dance will be held as usual in the Administration Bldg., in Midway Village ,and you are practically guaranteed a good time.

Do any of you know of an empty garage or two around the Baptist Church? Reverend Windenham tells us that things are really crowded in the Sunday School department. Any of you that know of a basement that can be used for about an hour around 10 o'clock on Sunday mornings, please contact Reverend Widenham, at JU. 5-4947. At present, they are making plans to clear out the dirt in part of the basement of the church, to accommodate the overflow, but the work will take a little time, and in the meanwhile, extra space is badly needed.

The topic of the Sunday morning service at the Baptist Church will be "Speak Up." The topic Sunday evening will be "The Assumption Dogma."

Friday evening will be a Missionary Service nite. Churchgoers on this evening will be asked to roll bandages and cut squares for missionaries use in native leprosy colonies.

Wedding Bells

Joan D. Garibaldi, Fred Green Exchange Vows At San Mateo

Joan Dorothy Garibaldi became the bride of Fred Ernest Green, at San Mateo Presbyterian Church, at 2 p.m. Sunday, April 8.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy White of San Mateo and Mr. John Garibaldi of Colma.

The Maternal grand parents are Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dennis Sr. of Atherton, formerlly of Colma.

The paternal grandmother is Mrs. Louisa Garibaldi of Colma.

The bride's dress was white marquiset and had a fitted waist and neckline embroidered with pearls. She wore a matching crown with finger tip veil. Her bouquet consisted of two white orchids, and streamers of bovardia.

Miss Ethel Garibaldi, sister of the bride was maid of honor, wore an orchid ballarina dress, a crown of yellow carnations worn in her hair. She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations and yellow streamers.

The bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Green of San Francisco, sister of the groom, and Miss Barabara Fiorito of San Francisco, who wore yellow ballarina dresses, and crowns of orchid carnations in their hair. They both carried bouquets of orchid carnations with orchid streamers.

The flower girls were Janet Dennis of Novato, who wore a yellow organdy dress with contrasting crown in her hair and carried a bouquet. Donna Dennis of Colma who wore a blue organdy dress with a contrasting crown in her hair and carried a matching bouquet.

Standing with Fred as best man was George Huegle of San Francisco. The ushers were Ronald Batie and Earl Frith, both of San Francisco.

John H. Dennis Jr. and Mari Pola acted as church ushers.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle and Godfather, Robert Myall Dennis of Colma.

Mrs. White, mother of the bride wore a hyacinth suit with old gold accessories. The groom's mother was attired in a green print dress with a matching picture hat. Both mothers wore orchid corsages. The reception was held at the American Legion Hall, San Mateo where several hundred relatives and friends attended.

Until her recent marriage Joan resided at the home of her mother and step father Mr. and Mrs. George F. White in San Mateo.

The newlyweds are now honeymooning in Southern California and upon their return will reside in San Mateo.

The bride's going away outfit was a navy blue suit with white accessories. Joan and Fred are both graduates of Mission High School in San Francisco. The bridal bouquet was caught by Miss Dolores Green, sister of the groom. For something new the bride wore the traditional blue garter which was caught by Mrs. Zeno Pola of San Francisco.

Fred's mother and step-father Mr. and Mrs. Glen McIntyre, reside at 263 States Street in San Francisco.

and some of those who created it

Last year 368 new, large industrial and commercial users were connected to P. G. and E. lines—including oil refineries, steel fabrication, chemical plants—the very sinews of American industry. Their power needs were met, with ample reserve to spare.

By summer our post-war construction program will have doubled our 1945 capacity.

All this took planning ahead and prompt action by many people. And as industry expands, P. G. and E. is ready and will continue to be ready with the power...and at rates among the lowest in the nation.

Don't Forget The County's Crippled Children

An urgent appeal was made today to County residents to lend their support to the failing Easter Seal drive for the county's crippled children.

The campaingn which was extended for a two week's period, is still far short of its 1951 goal and unless more contributions are forthcoming the society's year round program to assist local handicapped children is faced with disaster.

According to Mrs. Richard Heimann, president of the county organization, the funds raised to date for Easter seals is several thousand dollars under that of last year.

"More than 53,000 sheets of Easter seals," Mrs. Heimann said "were mailed out to citizens in the county during the week preceding the drive. To date, only about 8,000 replies with donations have been received at the society's office."

Don't Forget

She pointed out that each sheet of seals was accompanied by a self-addressed envelope to facilitate the mailing in of the dollar purchase price of the seals. It was her opinion that a great many local residents have undoubtly laid their Easter seals aside intending to pay for them later and as a result have forgotten to mail in their dollar.

It was Mrs. Heimann's hope that those who have not yet offered their dollar for Easter seals would do so within the next week in order that this year's fund goal might be met.

She further stated that the society, due to the growth of the county is being called upon for more and more aid for children with crippling diseases.

Ready Hand

"It must be remembered, "Mrs. Heimann said, "that the society stands always ready to lend a hand to those local residents who might have need of its facilities."

"You never know," she emphasized "when illness may strike a youngster close to you—it is then that the importance of the society's work is realized."

Contributions may be mailed to the society's office at 1204 Burlingame Avenue, Burlingame.

Troop 9 Elects New Officers At Meeting

Highlight of the first meeting of Troop 9 of the girl scouts Saturday was the election of new officers.

Intermediate girl scouts voted into office were Margaret Tarango, president; Wilma Tholen, vice president; Nancy Thompson, secretary; Diane Rauh, treasurer; Sharon Lynch, sentinal; and Judy Larcher, colorguard.

Plans for future meetings and the conduct of each member during them also were discussed at the meeting. Games were enjoyed after the business meeting.

The new troop is under the leadership of Mrs. Tholen.

Social Security Law Is Explained

Social Security for small businessmen, the self-employed, domestic workers in private homes, and other newly covered groups will be explained next Monday evening at 7:30 in the third of a series of two-hour lectures at Marina Adult Evening School, Chestnut and Fillmore Streets, by Charles H. Shreve, Manager of the San Francisco office, Social Security Administration.

All of the important changes in Social Security made by the 1950 amendments will be discussed in detail. There is no charge for the lecture. A question period will be provided at the end of the lecture so that those attending may have any Social Security question answered, Mr. Shreve announced today.

Approximately ten million persons not previously covered by Social Security came under the system January 1st. The retirement and survivors insurance protection for them and their dependents will amount to billions of dollars after they have worked under Social Security a year and a half, Shreve concluded.

The U. S. Bureau of Apprenticeship reports veterans are eligible for aprentice training programs.

. The Federal Wage and Hour Law requires employers to keep clear, accurate and complete payroll records of covered workers.

Assembly Attempts County Fair Slash

APRIL 19. (CNS)—The assembly has attempted to slash apportionments to 51 county and district fairs, including the San Mateo County Fair in San Mateo, but the question has not as yet been finally resolved.

The attempt to cut apportionments derived from the state's pari-mutuel take, which goes to supoprt county and district fairs, followed introduction and consideration of a bill by Assemblyman Lester T. Davis, Plumas county, which would have provided for the continuation of apportionments during the period of emergency.

Assemblyman Julian Beck, San Fernando, however, introduced an amendment which would change the apportionment under the present law, and provide that some 71 fairs share equally in the apportionment.

This would provide that fairs, including that in San Mateo county, would average $58,745 per year, instead of the $65,000 they now receive. Beck contended that state revenue from horse racing had fallen off last year, and would do so again this year.

Davis said the amendment was unfair, for it would cut the appropriations of 51 older and larger fairs, and raise the apportionments of 18 small, or recently activated shows.

Mr. Beck's own fairs, the Lancaster and San Fernando shows, would profit $11,954 for San Fernando and $8,243 for Lancaster," Davis said.

The amendment was adopted by the assembly, 48 to 15, but will be reconsidered.

DRIVERS' LICENSES IN CALIF.

A grand total of 5,106,048 drivers' licenses were outstanding in California as of January 31, 1951, according to the National Automobilt Club. Of this total, 4,674,358 were operators' licenses and 431,690 were chauffeurs' licenses.

This cleverly designed pyramid coat by Thermaster, has adjustable push-up sleeves and a high-buttoned crisply flaring collar. Of light-weight gabardine, it laughs at changing temperatures, for the contrasting Milium taffeta lining gives all-weather comfort. Ideal for vacationers . . . for, just as Milium gives extra warmth without extra weight in cool weather, so, its insulation properties work in reverse in hot weather, reflecting the sun rays away from the body.

Find Molds For Gel Cookery Dishes in Everyday Kitchen Articles

Successful gel-cookery doesn't call for an investment in elaborate molds. Appetizing dishes made with unflavored gelatine can be molded in containers found in most every kitchen. A coffee can is used to mold a main dish; mixed vegetables go back into their own can container to mold into cylindrical shape. Desserts are molded in an orange shell custard sup, or a fluted paper cup mold.

Basic Fruit Gelatine

1 envelope unflavored gelatine
½ cup cold fruit juice
1¼ cups hot fruit juice
⅓ cup sugar
⅛ teaspoon salt

Soften gelatine in cold fruit juice. Add hot fruit juice, sugar and salt; stir until dissolved. Pour into large or individual molds and chill until firm. YIELD: 4 servings.

For Tomato Aspic: Omit sugar, increase salt to ¼ teaspoon; add ½ teaspoon onion juice or other seasonings, if desired.

Molded Sea Food: Make Tomato Aspic. When gelatine is slightly thickened fold in 1 cup cut shrimp, shredded crab meat or tuna.

Molded Vegetables: Make Tomato Aspic. When gelatine is slightly thickened fold in 1½ cups mixed cooked vegetables and ½ cup diced celery or shredded cabbage.

Sugar Beet Industry Praised

Leaders of California's $100,000,000 beet sugar industry will launch this month an educational program within the state to acquaint Californians with the importance of their home industry and get them to buy more of its product.

Program was officially started with the appointment of Frank M. Weaver of Los Gatos, California, as its director. Weaver's appointment was announced today by William H. Ottey, general chairman of the California executive committee of Western Beet Sugar Producers, Inc. and vice-president and sales manager of Spreckels Sugar Company. Members of this committee represent the California Beet Sugar Growers Association and the four companies producing and selling Beet Sugar in California. Hodges, Pierce and Company, Inc., San Francisco public relations firm was also appointed to work with Weaver.

Committee members in addition to Chairman Ottey are: Gordon Lyons, executive manager, California Beet Growers Association, L. A. Lehman, director of sales, Union Sugar Company, R. L. Woodward, director of sales, Holly Sugar Corporation, and M. W. Hardy, Western Sales Manager, American Crystal Sugar Company.

Governor Announces Signing of Bills

APRIL 19. (CNS) — Governor Earl Warren this week announced he has signed the following bills:

S.B. 743, Hoffman, appropriating $90,000 for purchase of 150 color meters for testing canning tomatoes.

AB 816, Niehouse, authorizes payment of traveling expenses for school districts.

AB 1112, Stanley, authorizes perpetuity rights of use of sewage disposal facilities be granted by cities, districts, or public corporations.

AB 1114, Kelly, changes designation of emergency cash fund of local school districts to revolving cash fund.

AB 440, Sherwin, allows expenses for production or collection of income, or management or preservation of property to be deducted from bank and corporation taxes. Urgency measure effective July 1, 1951.

AB 559, Waters and Maloney, technical changes in law creating Franchise Tax Board.

AB 573, Waters and Maloney, technical changes in bank and corporation laws to conform to Franchise Tax Board law.

AB 575, Waters and Maloney, amends Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Law, making it misdemeanor for board to disclose information on any tax return.

AB 577, Waters and Maloney, codifies changes made in 1949 in Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act and Corporation Income Tax Act. Effective July 1, 1951.

Colma Boy Charges $25,000 Damages

The guardian of nine-year-old Robert A. Perdue, 704 Thornhill Drive, Colma, filed a $25,000 damage suit Thursday for injuries suffered by the boy in a traffic accident January 7.

The suit was filed in the Superior Court in Redwood City by Francis L. Ketchum against M. S. Anderson, 840 Larchmont Drive, Colma.

Anderson is charged in the complaint with backing his car out of his driveway and striking the boy, who was on a bicycle. The boy suffered serious internal injuries, the complaint stated.

REDECORATING TANFORAN Clubhouse for the annual St. Patrick's Dance on Friday Evening, March 16, are these members of the St. Dunstan's Committee: Nancy and Mary Ellen O'Meara, Harry Morrison and Leo Trembly. The dance will be the peninsula's major celebration of St. Patrick's Day.

FALLING FOR MONEY

by Ridgely Cummings

One of my recentry acquired Hollywood friends is a stunt man named Danny.

Like most men of action, Danny is thrifty with words. He'll talk about horses and the girls in the floor show around the corner but he regards his own job as strictly a way to make a quick buck and sees nothing interesting or glamorous about it.

By contrast, I'm new enough in the movie capital to regard a stunt man with considerable awe.

The other evening I walked into a cafe called Sandy's and found Danny drinking coffee with Marcel, a song and dance man who also plays the horses. Danny was explaining that he had just lost thirty bucks.

Still Looking

"The stewards are walking around the track with lanterns looking for that goat," said Danny. "He never did come in."

I had a personal interest in this remark, for the last time I'd talked with Danny he had borrowed a dollar for breakfast and bus fare. I wondered now how he could afford to bet that much but felt it would be impolite to ask. Marcel solved my problem.

"How did you get your hands on thirty clams?" he asked.

"I took a fall yesterday. For a hundred and fifty."

"What picture?"

"Some war picture. Something about frogmen."

"I did a dance routine in a war picture myself two years ago. 'Servicemen's Wives.' Maybe you saw it."

"Naw," said Danny.

The cook leaned over the counter and called:

"Hey Strongarm. How high was the fall?"

"Thirty feet."

Going Down

I whistled. "High as a three storey building."

Danny looked at me in surprise.

"Nothing to it," he said. "It was a dirt fall. If it had been concrete that would have been different. The worst of it was the machine gun."

"I did a staircase routine once that sounded just like a machine gun," said Marcel. "Laid them in the aisles. A lot of dough in that picture. It was called 'Baker's Dozen.'"

Wilson, a dignified little man with greying hair, had come in and joined us. He used to be a top agent before he had a coronary occlusion. He greeted Marcel and me and then said:

"Hi Danny. Getting any work lately?"

"Yeah. I was just telling the writer here about the fall I took. He thinks thirty feet is high."

Three Point Landing

"It's all in how you land," said Wilson.

"That's right. It takes preparation too."

Danny showed no signs of continuing so I asked:

"How do you mean?"

"Thinking in advance. I told them that machine gun was too rickety. Yo see, I'm on the edge of the roof. I'm a Jap soldier or a Korean or something, anyway a phony uniform. I was wearing glasses too. Just the rims so I won't get glass in my eyes if they break.

"I'm shooting this machine gun and they throw a bomb in front of me. I'm suposed to jump up in the air and fall backward and the camera pans with me all the way. Only thing, the bomb blew the gun off the roof too."

"You'll be in the cast of 'Plaster of Paris' next," said Wilson.

Marcel laughed and would have started another of his reminiscenses if I hadn't interrupted.

Machine Gun

"What happened with the machine gun?"

"I saw it coming down on top of me as I fell. It fell faster than I did so I wriggled clear."

"Didn't it hurt when you landed?"

"Naw. You just kick down with your hands and feet so you don't take all the force on your back. Nothing to it."

"No retakes?" Wilson asked.

Danny shook his head. "I wish there had been some."

I looked puzzled and Wilson explained.

"You get fifty bucks for each retake if it's the stunt man's fault. If anybody else blows the shot you get the straight hundred and fifty."

"That machine gun spoiled everything," said Danny. "It looked so good falling on top of me that the director was satisfied with just one fall."

PG&E Announces New $86 Million Power Additions

An $86,000,000 power project, which will extend Pacific Gas and Electric Company's billion dollar postwar construction program into 1954, was announced today by James B. Black, President. This project will add 500,000 kilowatts of steam-generated electric capacity to the Company's system.

Four 125,000-kilowatt generating units have been ordered for the new development, Black stated. They are to be installed at locations not yet finally determined. At least one generator is expected to be in operation late in 1953. These generators are so large that together they could supply a city of more than a million inhabitants. They exceed by 50,000 kilowatts the total installation which the Government has made on the Shasta project.

The PG&E's new undertaking, extending its unparalleled postwar expansion program into 1954, will bring the Company's investment in new facilities since V-J Day to more than one billion dollars.

Expansion

"The continuing expansion of the Company's system," Black said, "is particularly significant today when the development of more power for defense will be essential to the nation's security. Northern California already has felt the impact of increased industrial production for defense, and a substantial part of the increase in generating capacity will be required for this purpose.

"The Company's records month by month also show a steady upward trend in agricultural and domestic requirements for power. There is every indication that these demands will continue to increase.

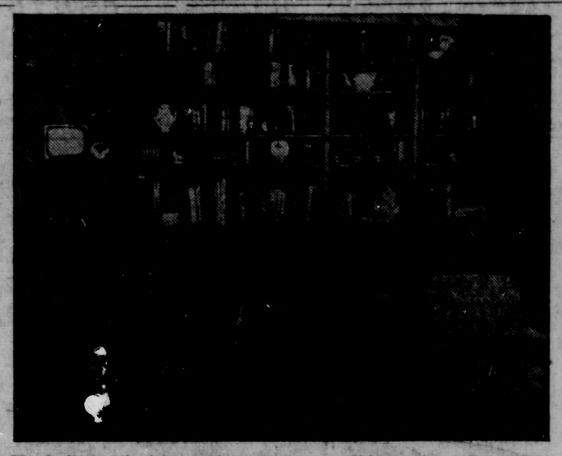
"PG&E is in a better position today than ever before to serve the power needs of this area and our plans for the future are to continue building ahead of load growth and to maintain necessary reserves.

More Building

"Construction already under way will add substantial amounts of new capacity to our system this year and in 1952 and 1953. The additional steam units just ordered are expected to carry our expansion program through 1954, and plant additions beyond that year already are in the planning stage."

When the generators now ordered are installed, PG&E will have added 2,306,000 kilowatts to its generating capacity of 1,728,000 kilowatts on V-J Day.

Besides the work which the Company is carrying on in major power projects, substantial additions also are being made to the Company's transmission and distribution system, both gas and electric. Expenditures on new facilities for this year are estimated at $130,000,000.



The built-in television cabinet, bookcases, cabinets and wall paneling of hardwood veneer lend distinctive beauty to this living room. Sonia Jean Albert, young New York architect, incorporated these attractive features in remodeling the home of her parents at Danbury, Conn., because hardwood plywood and wood veneer are durable and economical to install, and require only a quick once-over with the dust cloth and an occasional waxing to stay looking at their best.

Bright Horizon For You In Navy

YOUNG MEN—From the day you join the United States Navy you earn while you learn.

The Navy pays your way to the Training Center, where you remain for several weeks. During this time you get to know Navy life, Navy traditions, and Navy Regulations.

At the present time High School graduates are assured of attending one of the many vocational schools available. Non-High School graduates may also qualify for a Trade School providing they make the required score on a second classification test which is given during their recruit training.

The Navy is like private business in that it pays in proportion to your knowledge and experience. The Navy emphasizes opportunity, which means that you are given schooling and a chance to work on the finest equipment that modern industry can provide.

Remember! You need no experience to start. If you're handy with tools—if you like radio, photography, welding, or any other Navy occupational skill—you can learn by using the marvelous equipment the Navy offers.

If you're 17 and under 31 years of age, the Navy has a place for you. Stop in at the Navy Recruiting Station, located in the Post Office Building in San Mateo, and talk over the many opportunities the Navy has to offer with Chief Foulger. He will be glad to help you.

A minimum wage of 75 cents an hour is set by the Federal wage and hour law for all covered workers not specifically exempt.

S. F. Airport Terminal Gets CAA Green Light

Construction of San Francisco Airport's new passenger terminal will begin June 18, as a result of approval by the Civil Aeronautics Administration of plans previously submitted to it.

James H. Turner, Manager of Utilities, announced CAA's acceptance of the project, which is expected to go forward rapidly inas-much as it will enjoy the status of "federal project," through contribution of an as yet undetermined sum of federal funds toward construction.

The current expansion program at the airport began in 1946.

Local Boy Joins Navy

Jesus Martinez, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Martinez of 61 Alexander Avenue, Daly City, has enlisted in the Navy for a period of four years, announced Walter H. Hallfarth of the San Mateo County Recruiting Office located in the Post Office Building in San Mateo.

Martinez was graduated from Jefferson Union High School and was employed as a bank clerk in San Francisco.

He will attend the Navy's Recruit Training School at the Navy Training Center in San Diego, California, for a period of nine weeks, and will have the opportunity of attending one of the Navy's Technical and Trade Schools that are also located at the same Station.

The Wage Stabilization Board has designed the Federal Wage and Hour Division to handle queries on wage controls.

CHECKING HEADLIGHTS
Headlights are your car's "eyes" at night and should be checked daily, advises the California State Automobile Association. A quick way to make the test is to turn on your lights in the garage. High and low beam as well as tail and stop lights can be checked by their reflection against the walls.

San Francisco has five million cubic feet of cold storage warehouse space.

STUDY CANCER CAUSE — Two biochemists at Stanford University, Stanford, Calif., find new clues to cancer's cause by breaking down component parts of liver tissue. Dr. Clark Griffin (left) and Dr. Lew Cunningham, who have been working under an American Cancer Society research grant, are shown loading the chamber of an ultracentrifuge which spins at 60,000 revolutions per minute, separating the tissue into various parts that can be further analyzed by other processes.

Jefferson Student In Speach Finals

Jefferson High's Al Johnson will compete against Sequoia High's Diana Grohs in the Peninsula regional finals of the Lion Club's annual speaking contest Wednesday.

The regional finals will be held at Bertrand's retaurant in Palo Alto. The winner will enter the district tourney at Hoberg's in Lake County May 5.

Johnson represents the Daly City-Colma Lions Club, and Miss Grohs, the San Carlos Club.

Johnson qualified for the regional finals by winning the north county contest in San Mateo Thursday night. He defeated three other north county finalists —Mary Lou Morris of Brisbane, Maxine Atwater of San Mateo and Carol Nelson of Hillsborough.

Miss Grohs won her zone contest in the finals held in Palo Alto April 9.

Bill For Roadside Parks Defeated In Assembly

APRIL 19. (CNS)—An amendment to California's billion dollar budget bill calling for an added $25,000 to enable the division of beaches and parks to establish roadside parks, was defeated in the assembly this week as the lower house passed and sent the budget measure to the senate.

The amendment, introduced by Assemblyman Arthur W. Coats, Jr., Sutter county, would have provided funds for the establishment of such parks along all California highways.

Coats informed the assembly this state is far behind other states in establishing such areas where motorists may rest and picnic. The fund, he said, would increase the budget little but would provide sufficient money for the division to launch the program.

Assemblyman Marvin Sherwin, Alameda county, who introduced the budget bill, said the request by coats was ill-timed and such a smal lfund wouldn't do much good in the ambitious program urged by coats.

He said that if the division desidred such a program they should seek funds in the regular manner through a request to the legislature.

554 Measles Cases Reported In March

Measles continue to be prevalent in San Mateo county. According to figures released by the county health division 554 cases were reported in March.

Fortunately today measles need not carry with it the mortality and complications formerly associated with it. The availability of immune globulin for modification or prevention when necessary, and the use of antibiotics for the complications make this possible. In the past, years of high prevalence of measles were invariably followed by one or more years of low incidence. Formerly when populations were more stationary, a definite cycle of outbreaks every three or four years was noted in any given locality.

That such a cycle is not noticeable in recent years is undoubtedly due to greater population movement.

In Daly City during the month of March three chickenpox, three influenza, 46 measles, one mumps, four strep infections and two tuberculosis cases were reported.

Only two cases of measles were reported in Colma.

Bank Of America Announces Award Judges

Five Peninsula civic leaders have been named judges for the San Mateo and Santa Clara Co. public high schools zone selection event in the Bank of America Achievement Awards program, the bank announced today.

Dr. Clyde L. Ogden, superintendent of the Sequoia Union High School District, has been named chairman of the judges' panel, which is responsible for selecting Achievement Cup winners from the local high schools for the $32,000 in cash prizes offered California students by the bank.

The five judges are: Clarence Kay, Sunnyvale Motor Company; C. J. Ledwith, accountant, South San Mateo County superintendent of Schools; Rev. Joyce Farr, pastor of the San Jose First Methodist Church; and Ray Spangler, editor of the Redwood City Tribune.

Bank of America Vice President and Manager I. H. Potter of the Redwood City branch, is coordinator of the zone judging, which will be held May 4 in the Sequoia Union High School, Redwood City.

After interviewing the students, judges will pick four from the local zone to participate in a final award event for the nine Bay counties, sceduled May 23 in San Francisco. Zone winners will be awarded cash prizes ranging from $50 to $1000, depending on their ratings in the final event.

Achievement cups and certificates are currently being awarded to high school, parochial and private school seniors in the program's primary phase. All awards are granted on the basis of the student's achievement in school and promise of future success and service to society.

Nearly 100 per cent of Northern California's 300 secondary schools are participating in the 1951 Achievement Awards program, which is offered on a statewide basis this year for the first time.
